SUMMARY

11 February 1782

(Ex-King) Singu (10 June 1776 - 5 February 1782) and Nga Maung (former Lord of Hpaung Ga who made himself king for nearly a week: 5 February 1782 - 10 February 1782) were unable to maintain law and order in the kingdom. People had to leave their homes to hide for safety. Having compassion on these people, Prince Badon has to assume kingship.

Order:
(1) Watch the homes of the followers of (Ex-King) Singu and (former Lord of Hpaung Ga) Nga Maung.

(2) Check every house (in the city) and capture all bad men who took advantage of the recent disturbances to loot.

(3) Assign 50 to 60 men on special guard duty in every two or three wards to restore peace in the city immediately.

This Order was passed on 11 February 1782 and proclaimed by Nagan Daw Pyo Gyi Hmu - Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards (on the very day when King Badon ascended the throne).

Note: See ROB 16 May 1758 where ten Nagans were appointed with Dama Min Ye as Chief of Nagans, who was also assigned to write a manual of Nagans "who receive orders from a higher authority to be transmitted to people concerned" and it would be more appropriate to call Nagan Liaison Officer and Than Daw Sint Herald whereas Than Daw Gan is officer to receive vassal lords visiting the city to attend the annual Kowtow.

11 February 1782

Order:
(1) Send land and water forces against Ex-King Singu and his men under Nga Toke Gyi and Nga Tun, on 12 February 1782 at the auspicious time prescribed by the astrologers.
(2) Let the troops go northwest at the beginning of the march.
(3) No one of them shall be allowed to drink liquor, etc., to bully his fellows and to eat beef.
(4) Punish severely, irrespective of his rank and status, anyone who disobeys this Order.

This Order was passed on 11 February 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

12 February 1782

Ex-King Singu and Nga Maung had failed their duties to keep law and order in the kingdom. People were in much distress and with compassion on them, Prince Badon has assumed the kingship.

Order:
(1) Send messengers in haste to all provincial chiefs in Shan and Myay Lat (Cis-Salween between Burma and Shan) areas announcing the new reign.
(2) Send messengers to all important centres along the Irrawaddy and Chindwin valleys announcing the new reign.
(3) Choose the messengers carefully so that each of them would be able to carry out their assignments with intelligence and efficiency.

This Order was passed on 12 February 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

12 February 1782

Ex-King Singu tries to escape into China. Min Ye Yan Naing (Chief of Yu Daw Mu Horse) and Thamanta Ye Ba Nya U (Chief of Nauk Win) had sent their men to report this. They also promised to seize the Ex-King.

Order:
(1) Min Ye Yan Naing and Thamanta Ye Ba Nya U shall return to the city to take the oath of allegiance before they go to intercept the Ex-King's escape into China.
(2) Administer the oath of allegiance to the men sent here by Min Ye Yan Naing and assign them any suitable duty here.

(3) Tuyin Mye Myan and his 70 men shall guard the sector north of Hluttaw.

(4) The following officers said that they would join the chase and capture the Ex-King.

Amyauk Wun - Officer of Cannons
Anauk Win Hmu - Officer of West Palace Guards, Nanda Kyaw
Anauk Wun - Officer of West Palace, Maha Pa Kyan
Kin Wun - Officer of Tolls
Mibaya Wun - Chief Queen's Minister
Min Ye Min Hla Kyaw Thu
Myo Lat Wun - Officer of Towns without Myo Wuns of their own Thado Thiha Thu and Yun Zu Wun - Officer of Yun (Shan) Groups.

They shall present themselves here first and take the oath of allegiance. If they refuse to come here before doing anything else, arrest them and seize their property.

This Order was passed on 12 February 1782.

13 February 1782
Order: (1) Men who went with the former king to Anya (Thihadaw) shall stay in their homes without fear of any molestation to their lives and properties.

(2) Now that Ex-King Singu had been captured by Thado Thiha Thu, Myo Lat Wun and their men at Sanpanago, let this news be declared by the beat of gongs throughout the city.

This Order was passed on 13 February 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

14 February 1782
Thado Thiha Thu, Myo Lat Wun, Kin Wun, Yun Zu Wun, Anauk Win Hmu Nanda Kyaw and Than Ba Na Ye had captured Ex-King Singu, wives and children, and had brought the captives on Aung Ban boat. Nga Tun, Nga Toke Gyi and Nga Kyin escaped. Amyauk Wun was sent after them. They had done a great service to the present monarch though they still have to take the oath of allegiance to the new king. Nothing was amiss. When Ava fell, Alaungmintaya established a new kingdom. After him, his eldest son became king. Then the second son was made king after the demise of the eldest brother. The second son was succeeded by Prince Singu as king. Unfortunately he lacked all the ten virtues of a king. Consequently he could not remain long as a king. The succession would naturally devolve on the third son of Alaungmintaya, who is the present Lord. Nga Maung, however, usurped the throne. Disturbances continued and the responsibility to restore peace and tranquility in the kingdom fell upon Prince Badon. Ex-King Singu was captured by Thado Thiha Thu, Myo Lat Wun, Kin Wun and the group of those officers of the former reign.

Order: (1) Officers shall devote all their efforts on reconstruction of things damaged during the recent disturbances.

(2) Bring Ex-King Singu and family to the city.

(3) Give Zawta Theinga and Yanta Mate Sithu all the men and boats that they would require for a campaign.

This Order was given on (14 February 1782).

Note: Ex-King Singu was drowned on 14 February 1782. (Kon I 1967, p.531)

18 February 1782

Order: (1) Send messengers to all provincial centres in the kingdom to announce the beginning of a new reign.

(2) Administer the oath of allegiance to the provincial chiefs either by sending special officers to do it at their own localities or by summoning them to come to the capital to take it.

This Order was given on 18 February 1782 and proclaimed by Naymyo Nandathu.
Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

20 February 1782

Order: (1) There shall be no making, selling and consumption of any kind of intoxicant drink or inhaling a stimulent drug in the entire kingdom.

(2) There shall be no big game hunting in the entire kingdom.

(3) There shall be no gambling of any kind in the entire kingdom.

(4) Resume the time announcements by the beating of drums from the usual places where special drums for this purpose are kept.

(5) Check all weight, capacity and length measures and fix a seal to every one of these things or instruments used in measuring to verify that it agrees with the standards.

This Order was passed on 20 February 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

22 February 1782

Order: (1) Execute the men who were of the top rank among the followers of Ex-King Singu and Nge Maung and confiscate their property.

(2) Give amnesty to others who had no choice but to obey orders during the recent episodes.

(3) There is a custom that some crimes would be connived with the change of a reign. Respect this custom.

(4) There are people who asked someone else to keep some of their property for fear of confiscation as they are somehow or other related to persons who had participated in the cause of Ex-King Singu and Nga Maung; officers shall help them to get back their own things without any difficulty.

This Order was passed on 22 February 1782.

24 February 1782
24 February 1782

Order:

1) The Order of 22 February 1782 is meant to stop property confiscations; in spite of that Nga Aung Myin and Nga Lun Baw took the property of some foreigners; punish those who disobeyed the Order by declaring their misdemeanour by a beat of gong at nine gates of the city.

2) When another similar offence occurred, both the man who committed the crime as well as his immediate superior would be punished.

This Order was passed on 24 February 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

25 February 1782

Order:

1) The office of a local chief is always hereditary and the palace archives have the genealogical list of these chiefs; nevertheless some rightful people were ousted from their positions during the time of last king; Hluttaw shall check and correct these discrepancies.

2) Elephants are grouped under these heads:

   (Htu Sin  = Best young bull elephants)
   (Htu Sin Ma = Best young cow elephants)
   (Si Zu Sin Ma = Selected cow elephants for short trips)
   Si Daw Gyi = Selected bull elephants for members of the royal family for short trips
   Yway Sin = Selected elephant fighters
   Win Sin = Elephants of North Palace Guards
   (Htan Sin = Elephant carriers)
   (Wun Yi Sin = Elephants reserved for ministers)
   Danet Pala Sin = Elephants for taming wild elephants
   Aukma Sin = Elephants for capturing wild elephants
   Kyin Sin = Elephants used in funeral processions)
   (Meinthit Sin = Elephants of poor quality either young or old)

   (Names in parenthesis are not given in this Order) and separate plots of land at various suitable places had been allotted to each group so that elephants could have ample grazing ground while men tending them could build homesteads and cultivate; nevertheless these 'elephant lands' had been alienated during the time of last king; put them right again and withdraw all written orders that broke the good old situation.

(3) Dues exacted at

Seik (port)
Ti (seasonal trade fair and/or permanent market)
Pwe (trade depot or brokerage)
Kin (toll station) and Gado (ferry)

are reported to have been raised too high recently; reduce them to their customary rates as they had been collected formerly in the times of

King Saturday (Dabayin Min 1698-1714)
King Sunday (Mhannan Shin 1714-1733) and King Thursday (Mahadhammarajadhipati 1733-1752) and leave the usual shares from dues collected from certain places for religious establishments as before.

(4) There had been promotions and demotions without any good cause during the last reign and insignias of rank and office were also not properly used; restore every officer or man to his former position, title and insignia that he was given at the time of Maha U Gintha - the Great Opening Day of the Throne Room, at the beginning of King Myedu's reign in 1763; if there is any raise to be made to an officer's rank or any correction in his insignia, it shall be done at the time of the Great Opening Day of the Throne Room of the present reigning lord.

(Maha U Gintha day held by King Myedu was on 16 May 1764 and King Badon had it on 23 May 1783; and declaring that he wanted "the right man in the right place" King Myedu made a shuffle of official positions on 15 September 1764. See Kon I 1967, pp.353, 357 & 552)
Kyaung Athi – Men of Monasteries, and Hpaya Athi – Men of Pagodas, who were once dedicated as servants of the religion by ancient rulers and their descendants shall remain servants of the religion even though the religious establishment to which they were originally attached are now in ruin; it is not unlikely that some of their descendants are now in the king's service; trace them; allow no one of influence protect them; return them to their position of being servants of the religion attached to any religious establishment where their services might be useful.

State affairs are many and varied; for the time being, ministers shall give top priority in restoring peace as there had been much trouble recently.

This Order was passed on 25 February 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

28 February 1782
Order:( 1) The way ministers had administered the oath of allegiance to provincial chiefs is approved.

( 2) Ministers shall continue various executive works with an equal enthusiasm and efficiency.

This Order was passed on 28 February 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

3 March 1782
Order:( 1) In settling debts, the principle of Mu Hso Ma Wun – a widow's way in tackling a hard work, shall be allowed.

( 2) Observe also another principle of Pin Yin Det Akhet Ma Pwa – branches of a tree shall never outdo its trunk, i.e. total amount of interest on a loan of money shall never exceed the amount of loan itself.
In cases of adultry, assault, dispute of land, slender, theft, etc. a judge should be quick in his perception to differentiate taya - civil case, from yazawut - criminal case, so that he could decide whether he should apply either Yazathat or Damathat or both to decide a particular case.

Some people who should not become a judge at all, had been made a judge in the time of former king; check the appointment of judges.

Use the principle Kye Thi Saga Nge Aung, Nge Thi Saga Pa Byauk Aung - minimise the outrageous statement and mitigate the negligible one. (Variation: Kye Thi Amhu Go Nge Aung, Nge Thi Ahmu Go Pa Byauk Aung - minimise the big offence and mitigate the small one.)

Fix the court fees, as well as the fee for getting evidences before the judge.

Fix the fees to be given to pleaders.

When there were no eye witnesses nor any form of written statement in support of a claim, prescribe Kaba Lay Yat - four kinds of trial by ordeal, and fix the various fees on each form of ordeal.

Fix the fees for copying the judgement, writing an appeal, etc.

Devolution of the office of local chiefs shall be determined only after having referred to the old records on genealogical lists made in the reign of King Myedu.

If there were any difference with genealogical list made during the time of Alaungmintaya and that of King Myedu, the later one should be used, because the first one was made at a time when conditions were not well established.
When a man and his wife have no children, the wife shall inherit the man or the husband shall inherit the woman and after the decease of both of them, their property goes to their parents and grandparents; when there are no parents or grandparents living, the property is escheated to the crown.

This Order was passed on 3 March 1782 and proclaimed by Pyanchi Thiri, Liaison Officer.

Note: This Order together with ROB 14 August 1783, 18 August 1783, 29 August 1783 and 7 January 1784 give us some idea of how the new king wanted the administration of justice should be carried out in his kingdom.

10 March 1782

Monks called Kyeik Ban Daing, Thawutthi, Sipa and Htandabin are not living like real monks.

Order: (1) Kyeik Ban Daing shall change to wearing only white robes and he shall be exiled to Gangaw and Talaw.

(2) Send Thawutthi, Sipa and Htandabin, each to one of the four (big) forests.

This Order was passed on 10 March 1782 and proclaimed by a Senior Wundauk - Assistant Minister.

15 April 1782

Note: Except for the date, this Order is the same with that of 20 April 1770.

3 June 1782

After the Buddha's death, attempts were made by monks and kings to keep the Buddha's Religion in its most pure and original form. Consequently there were the First, Second and Third Buddhist Synods. In Burma, from about the time of King Saturday (Dabayin Min 1698-1714), grandfather of King who was taken to Hanthawaddy (Mahādhammarājādhipati 1733-1752), there was a difference of opinion among monks that a monk should cover with robe only his left shoulder or both shoulders on entering a village and attempts to reconcile both factions has failed repeatedly. King Alaungmintaya decided in favour of 'Left Shoulder' and this decision was confirmed in the times of King Dabayin and King Myedu. Then in the time of King Singu, the debate on the problem was resumed and 'Left Shoulder' group was defeated. Nevertheless, Lord of Hpaung Ga seemed to have given an order in favour of 'Left Shoulder'. Shwe Daik Wun and Kyi Wun were sent to leaders of former 'Left Shoulder' group like Shwe Zedi Shin Asabha, Shwe Myin Mi Shin Saddhamaramsi, Lay Dut Myauk Taik Shin Janinda, Kyaw Htin Thinkhaya Kyuang Shin Cakkārāma, etc. to find out whether this supposition is true or not. The monks said that it was not Lord Hpaung Ga but themselves who resumed 'Left Shoulder' practice because it was done like that by their teachers' teachers several generations ago. When asked to choose old practice or correct practice, they are wise enough to take the correct one. On 3 June 1782 when Yadana Shwe Bon Kyaung Nāṇavilāsasaddhammamahārājādhirājaguru was given charge of the Religion, the crux of the problem is to keep all monks in one single group.

Order: Nāṇavilāsasaddhammamahārājādhirājaguru together with Mingala Shwe Bon Sayadaw, Maha Mingala Shwe Bon Sayadaw and Bon Gyaw Wayyan Sayadaw shall see to the fact that all monks in the kingdom shall follow the 'Correct Practice' in all religious affairs.

This Order was sent in ceremony to Man Aung Yadana Thudama Zayat on 3 June 1782 and Pyi Lon Ant Hmu Nanda Waytha made obeisance to the monks three times and presented it to Yadana Shwe Bon Sayadaw (the monk who was appointed Religious Preceptor).

16 November 1782

Wun Gyi - Minister, Wun Dauk - Assistant Minister, Myo Wun - Officer of Town, Htaung Hmu - Chief of One Thousand , and Myo Sayay - Town Constable, are entrusted with their own administrative duties. They are not only to suppress crime but also to prevent it. There were reports that cattle were killed and beef was sold in the suburban areas of the city. Chicken and pork were sold in markets. Officers made no serious attempt to suppress such offences including theft.

Order: Negligence of duty would not be tolerated.

This Order was passed on 16 November 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

Note: ROB 20 February 1782 says that there shall be no big game hunting and this seems to include butchering domestic animals as well.

21 December 1782

Having a new Golden Palace built together with walls, turrets, moats, etc. on a permanent basis would require a considerable work force and cause a great deal of expenses. In order to have it done most efficiently and without incurring undue expenses, several groups of workers, each under a local chief assisted by a clerk are organized and each group is given an almost similar assignment.

Order: (1) Prescribe standard rates and wages for making each portion of the wall or moat.

(2) Prescribe the style or size or quality of each part of construction.

(3) Prescribe the price of material to be used in construction.

This Order was passed on 21 December 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

26 December 1782

Orchids are not supposed to be used by general public before they have been presented to the royalty in each year.

Order: (1) Put under custody those who distributed orchids before having them sent to palace and those who had the audacity to use them before the royalty.

(2) Impose a fine on the suppliers of orchids and get new supplies from them.

This Order was given on 26 December 1782 and proclaimed by Pyanchi Thiri, Liaison Officer.

26 December 1782

Order: (1) Release those people held in custody for the 'orchid offence'.

(2) Orchids shall never be given to general public before the royalty.

This Order was passed on 26 December 1782 and proclaimed by Pyanchi Thiri, Liaison Officer.
29 December 1782

It was reported that reckless horse riders galloped away both along crowded main roads as well as in narrow lanes so that one novice was overrun by a horse on the north of the palace and a woman fell after collision with a horse at a place near Win Ma Na city gate. An Order had already been passed forbidding a reckless riding of horse but it seems that the city office fails to give serious notice to that Order.

Order: (1) By a declaration with the beat of gong, forbid reckless riding of horse.

(2) When found a reckless rider, people around shall seize the rider even though he be of the royal family and hand him over to the City Office.

(3) Warn the City Officer to observe this Order very strictly.

This Order was passed on 29 December 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

Note: See ROB 16 October 1782.

4 February 1783

Order: (1) Execute Nga U and Nga Hkwe (men under Pyinzi Myin Hmu) for making an attempt to open a city gate when His Majesty the King was in the vicinity.

(2) Put in prison Pyinzi Myin Hmu.

This Order was passed on 4 February 1783 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards, when the King was at the Yay Tha Bin Nan Daw.

Note: It seems that there were some attempts to seize the throne as Lord of Hpaung Ga has done on 5 February 1782.
(Kon I 1967, pp.520-1) but such attempts were not successful and the person concerned were executed:

6 February 1783

Order: (1) Since the season of strong wind has set in, adequate preparations against fire shall be done immediately.

(2) Check that people took special care in the use of fire in all places either within or without the city and palace enclosure.

(3) Every house shall have hooks fixed on long bamboos, pikes and water pots ready.

(4) Old door panels and walls made of bamboo matting shall be renewed.

(5) Keep places clean by putting away quite often the garbage that would catch fire easily.

(6) Follow instructions strictly.

This Order was passed on 6 February 1783 and proclaimed by Pyanchi Thiri, Liaison Officer.

17 February 1783

Order: (1) A chief of gunners shall not by himself accept any recruits in his group.

(2) If there were any such recruits, send them back to their original places.

(3) On the other hand, if there were any absconders from the gunner groups, trace them and restore them to their proper unit and report where they had been found and who had sheltered them.

This Order was passed on 17 February 1783 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Group.

6 March 1783

Order:(1) Top priority shall be given to new palace and city constructions and to preparations for the ceremony of occupying the new palace and city as well as the Maha U Gin Tha – Opening of the Throne Room (Audience Hall) in the new palace and coronation.

(2) No one who is employed at either one of the various works at the city shall be called away even when he is required at a law court either for defending himself or giving an evidence.

(3) Do not employ agents to realise payment of debts. Persons who advanced the loans shall deal with them by themselves.

This Order was passed on 6 March 1783 and proclaimed by Pyanchi Thiri, Liaison Officer.

Note: Hti Baung Ga was chosen on 10 October 1782 as the site for the new city of Amarapura (Kon I 1967, p.546) and constructions there begun on 9 January 1783 (Kon I 1967, p.548). The King moved from Ava to the new city of Amarapura on 12 May 1783 (Kon I 1967, p.551).

19 March 1783

Order:(1) Myo Wun - City Officer, Htaung Hmu - Chief of One Thousand, Myo Sayay - City Constable, shall carry out their duties of suppressing crime in the city more diligently.
(2) Bribery and corruption among policing personnel of the city shall not be tolerated; reprimand them.

(3) Tu Yin Min Ye, Htaung Hmu - Chief of One Thousand, in Sagaing shall take more intensive care to suppress crime in the area under him and he shall not be having any help from Ava as before.

This Order was passed on 19 March 1783 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

24 March 1783

Land had been dedicated to various religious establishments by kings of the olden times. From some land so dedicated, the agricultural produce was for the religious establishment but from others, it was the tax of the land that was meant for the religion. The dedications were usually recorded by inscriptions on stones. Sometimes the records would be lost. Sometimes the establishment would be in ruins. In any case, it becomes increasingly difficult to know how much of the religious land has passed unwittingly as king's land.

Order:(1) All local chiefs shall report the extent of religious land in the areas under their charge with the help of people who would know their existence through some kind of dealing with these lands from several generations before them.

(2) Collect the dues or taxes from such lands and give them to Mahadan Wun - Religious Affairs Officer, to keep them safe for use on religion only.

This Order was passed on 24 March 1783 and proclaimed by Pyanchi Thiri, Liaison Officer.

8 April 1783

Order:(1) Start the water festival, as usual, from 9 April 1783.

(2) Use only good, (cool and clean) water for the occasion.
(3) Forcibly colouring anothers body or face in colours black, white and yellow, is not allowed.

(4) There shall be no quarrels.

(5) Keep away from the river so that no one would be drowned.

(6) Let it be a happy occasion without any mishap.

(7) Myo Wun - City Officer, shall declare these points by a beat of gong in all places of city.

This Order was passed on 8 April 1783 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

5 May 1783

Order: (1) Shwe Sa Daing Royal Elephant which is in a state of heavy must, had killed men; have it allured into Sin Kyone - Elephant Inclosure, and tethered securely.

(2) Keep pillars in position so that Swe Daw Hla Sin Daw Gyi and other decoys would not be harmed in the process of having the rouge captured.

This Order was passed in the evening on 5 May 1783 and proclaimed by Thiri Yaza Nanthu, Senior Clerk.

30 May 1783

Order: (1) The four Guardians of the Religion have been given each a specific jurisdiction and none of them shall transgress each others jurisdiction.

(2) Whenever there appears a case difficult for only one Guardian to decide by himself, he shall let the elders of the Pitaka Tike Taw to try the case collectively.

This Order was passed on 30 May 1783 and proclaimed by Nanda Sithu, Liaison Officer.

14 June 1783
14 June 1783

Order: (1) As it has been the custom of Universal Monarchs, the eldest son is appointed the Crown Prince so that he could help the King in bringing about the prosperity of the Religion, king and his royal family for several generations to come, and people in general.

(2) Preparations shall be made for the Investiture on 10 July 1783.

(3) Built the Pavilion of Marriage within the enclosure set aside for the residence of the Crown Prince, on 30 June 1783.

(4) Built the Palace of the Crown Prince when the rains are over (in September - October 1783).

(5) Prepare the list of staff members of the Crown Prince's Office as well as the list of servants at his residence including palanquin bearers.

This Order was passed on 14 June 1783 and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Mait Kyaw Htin, Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

19 June 1783

This Order was passed on 30 June 1783 and proclaimed by Nay Myo Athinkhaya, Liaison Officer.

1 July 1783

Order: (1) Make a new list of men serving the princes and princesses.

(2) Each prince or princess has been given men to serve him or her by a Royal Order and for every new name added to the original or area list, the names of the chief and group/from which he or she was transferred should be entered against his or her name.

This Order was passed on 1 July 1783 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

3 July 1783

In Pagan times, standard spelling was given in Akkharapadesa. In Pinya period the same work was used as a guide to spelling though Caturaṅgabala made the decision whenever there was a problem. In the First Ava period of Thayet dynasty and Second Ava of Nyaungyan dynasty, that work together with a verse on spellings were recommended for spelling. The verse begins with a phrase Sabbāññāṇaṁ and as such it comes to be known as Sabbāññāṇaṁ. We are told that King Thalun (1633-1648) took great interest in spelling. In case of doubt Nanda Yawda made the decision. For Shan words, Zayya Nayatha was the authority. When it came to the time of King Mahādhamma-rājadhīpati (1733-1752) another spelling book called Vaññabodhana Sat 'Añ: was introduced. But minister Padaytha Yaza had to say the last word.

Order: (1) Now on spelling follow Vāṇṇabodhana Sat 'Añ: , Sat Puñ by Nga O and Sat Ňhwān: by Twān Thin and on spelling of loan words from Nāgarī, Thathanabuy Sayadaws shall have the final say.

(2) On translation of works imported from Majjhimadesa and Baṅga, which is now in progress, this same Order is also applicable.

(3) Let this Order be proclaimed also in the remote places of the kingdom.

This Order was passed on 3 July 1783 and proclaimed by Thiri Mait Kyaw Htin, Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards. It was passed again on 31 May 1817 and proclaimed by Zayya Theingathu, Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

It seems that Vāṇṇabodhana Sat 'Añ: , Kavilakkhana Sat Puñ and Twān: Sañ: Sat Ňhwān: are still considered as useful references on Burmese spelling.

4 July 1783

The obeisance is usually held in the Myay Nan - Earth Palace, at the beginning of the Buddhist Lent each year. Since the hall is still under repair, it is not available for ceremonies.
Order: Hold the Obeisance Ceremony elsewhere.
This Order was passed on 4 July 1783 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.

5 July 1783
Order: (1) Transfer the men as given in the lists submitted, to the service of the Crown Prince.
(2) Should there be any recommendation to add some more departments in the Office of the Crown Prince, do so and recruit men for the additional places.
(3) Keep proper register for these transfers and recruits.
This Order was passed on 5 July 1783 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.

11 July 1783
Various wards in the city have been divided into blocks and blocks are subdivided into plots for residence of notable persons. Minor officers are not entitled to such plots.
Order: (1) Eject people living in plots which are not given to them in the original city plan.
(2) Let the people who have to live outside the city move into the plots so vacated.
(3) The plot of Shay Wun Gyin Wun - Officer of East Environs, is too big for him. Cut it to normal size.
This Order was passed on 11 July 1783 and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu, Liaison Officer.

11 July 1783
Order: Give Pakhangyi as a fief to Thado Maha Thihathu;

Tributes are accepted when Maha U Gin Tha - Ceremony of Opening the Throne Room, is held. Tributes are also accepted at the Investiture of Crown Prince.

Order: Use some coloured rice and popcorn as tributes at the Obeisance Ceremony at the beginning of the Buddhist Lent held at Shay Yon - East Court, and Nauk Yon - West Court, of the Palace.

This Order was given on 14 July 1783 and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu, Liaison Officer.

15 July 1783

The Zawti Sect was suppressed in the reign of King Myedu (1763-1776).

Order: Whenever remnants of the Zawti were found and if they declare that they have now abandoned that faith, let them not suffer any punishment.

This Order was passed on 15 July 1783 and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu, Liaison Officer.

Note: In this Order a former Zawti man has only to declare that he has abandoned his faith and he goes free. ROB 17 July 1783 that follows says that it is not enough. He should be sent to the capital. In ROB 8 September 1783, we find that men sent from Hluttaw to seize Zawti men in Sinbyugyun were punished because they allowed them to escape by taking bribes.
17 July 1783

Order: (1) When a follower of Zawti sect is found, send him to the capital.

(2) If the checking is not done properly now and if and when a remnant of that sect is found later, whoever responsible to do the checking now shall also be punished.

(3) Made this Order known to all provincial chiefs.

This Order was passed on 17 July 1783 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.

Note: See ROB 15 July 1783 and 8 September 1783.

27 July 1783

Order: (1) In order to avoid congestion, permit the use of two city gates, one in the north wall and another in the west wall for funerals.

(2) Eject houses built in an area marked for a cemetery.

(3) On the west of the city, mark a plot of land measuring 350 square yards / 320 square metres along the stream on the southwest of Gu Gyi Hpaya for a cemetery.

(4) Move all prostitutes to a place on the west of Zagyin Wa.

(5) Move the houses from the place now given to prostitutes to any suitable site within the city.

(6) Assign Myo Wun - City Officer, and one Wundauk - Assistant Minister, to carry out this Order.

This Order was passed on 27 July 1783 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

11 August 1783

Order: (1) As fiefs, give the following places, each to the person mentioned against its name:

   Danubyu                          Thiri Mingala Mahay

Kyay Nin village of Mahadan Taik

Thiri Myat Hta Mahay
Thiri Sanda Mahay
Thiri Myat Swa Mahay and Mingala Mahay.

(2) In place of Maha Thiri Zayya Thura, appoint Daywa Thiri jointly with Nay Myo Zayya Gamani as Myo Wun - City Officer.

This Order was passed on 11 August 1783 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

14 August 1783

Order: (1) Do not issue judgement until both parties concerned agree to a decision in cases that appear at Hluttaw.

(2) When one party objected to a decision, he should be given the right to appeal with a statement written by a pleader.

An Order to this effect had been issued before. It was passed again on 14
August 1783 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

Note : See ROB 3 March 1782, item 9, 18 August 1783, 29 August 1783 and 7
January 1784.

16 August 1783

A good rainfall would bring good crops and visitations of natural calamities like draught, flood and storms would destroy all crops.

Order: (1) Made offerings, as prescribed by men who are wise in old customs, to the gods of rain, water and wind to avert ill luck and to give good harvest.

(2) Request monks to recite paritta in the precints of pagodas noted for fulfilling the wishes.

(3) Offer food to the monks.

This Order was passed on 16 August 1783 and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu, Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

-27-
16 August 1783

Order: Give Ingapu as a fief to the Chief Queen.

This Order was given on 16 August 1783 and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu, Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

16 August 1783

According to the report of Kyi Wun - Granaries Officer, although

Chaung Zone

are in his jurisdiction, Sawbwa and Myozas in their neighbourhood together with headmen of Dabayin, In Dauk Tha and Myedu had recently exacted some dues from these places and consequently the people of these places could not pay their customary dues through Kyi Wun.

Order: Sawbwas, Myozas, Headmen of Dabayin, In Dauk Tha and Myedu, Officer of Myauk Hpet Taik, Officer of Sin Jay Taik, and clerks of these Taiks shall stop asking dues in the said areas which come under Kyi Wun's jurisdiction.

This Order was passed on 16 August 1783 and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu, Liaison Officer.

18 August 1783

Suing at a law court should be discouraged (because it is best to have a dispute settled outside a court). When sued, however, never let a simple case grows into a complex one if it can be helped. This is the maxim.

Order: (1) Ex parte decisions should never be made.

(2) Before a decision is made, consult either Damathat or Yazathat or records and lists in the archives.

(3) Decisions should never be biased or one sided.

(4) Judges should ever remain above bribery and corruption.

This Order was given on 18 August 1783 and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu, Liaison Officer.

Note: Similar Orders touching upon civil and criminal procedures that could be used as manuals of judges, magistrates and pleaders were passed fairly often; see ROB 3 March 1782, 14 August 1783, 18 August 1783 and 7 January 1784. ROB 28 January 1795 seems to be the most important of these Orders (See Than Tun: "The Royal Order (Wednesday 28 January 1795) of King Badon" (Burmese Text and English Translation), Journal of Asian and African Studies (Institute for the Study of Languages and Cultures of Asia and Africa, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies), No.26, 1983, pp. 153-201).

Order: Nga Poke, son of Min Nge Kyaw, is appointed Saw Put O Myin Hmu - Leader of Saw Put O Horses.

This Order was given in the evening on 24 December 1783 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.

25 December 1783

Order: (1) The lists of common folks and service men were usually kept in good order in the Palace Archives but

(a) the lists were lost and

(b) it was impossible to keep men confined to their own group as they were called upon to join various military expeditions since the time of Alaungmintaya; now it is high time that things should be restored to their proper order; get the service groups checked.
so that each man would be in his own unit.

(2) Under Alaungmintaya, some men of lower origin would rise very quickly to high positions through field service and some deserving men would be left unrewarded. Under King Myedu (1763-1776) and recently in the present reign, selections were made to form Thway Thauk Su - Infantry, and Myin Zu - Cavalry. Yet there would be some omissions. Get these deserving but neglected persons and admit them into suitable groups of fighting forces or get them enlisted in any unit of their ancestors. This includes men in high positions who have had no service in a fighting unit. They shall also join one or the other of the fighting forces. Submit the new list of Thway Thauk Su - Groups of Thway Thauk (a band of fifty men).

(3) In some villages, the line of hereditary chief was broken. An ordinary villager who would have some ability of leadership was made a chief and the new line so created shall be confirmed if it had lasted either ten years or if there were already three generations of chiefs in the same line provided the family is originally not of some religious or menial service. Consult Damathat, Yazathat, Hpyat Htone and find a solution as to what should be done to a chief of new line that has not reached the third generation as successive chiefs or completed the period of ten years as chief in that particular place.

(4) In a case of dispute between several branches of a ruling family for succession to chieftainship, recognize only the most senior branch to rule.

(5) When a leader of a group of horsemen died with no son or brother to succeed him, let all the members of the group select one among them for leadership. If there is a new line of chiefs, confirm that line if it has reached a period of ten years or if it had passed up to the third generation provided it is not a family of religious servants or menial labourers originally.

(6) When there are more than one hundred horsemen in a group, keep the extras in a reserve group.

(7) Disputes of succession to leadership that had once been decided in the reign of King Myedu (1763-1776) and in this reign too, shall not be revised.

(8) Division of children from intergroup marriages (except in a marriage where the man or woman is of either religious service or menial service) according to the general principle of "boys go with father and girls stay with mother" holds good, until this time of "list collection". Any other way of division, if necessary, shall be announced later.

This Order was passed on 25 December 1783 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu,
Liaison Officer.

Note: Other general instructions on administration are given in ROB 17
November 1783, 27 November 1783 and 7 December 1783.

(2) Zayya Shwe Daung is appointed Aukma Wun - Officer of Wild Elephant Catching, in place of Nga Tha U.

This Order was passed on 7 January 1784 and proclaimed by Nanda Sithu, Liaison Officer.

7 January 1784

High ranking officers shall not represent a party in a law suit as it would most probably influence the decision made by a judge. This Order was passed on (29 August 1783).

Order: Punish the person who disobeys this Order, irrespective of his official status or his family connections.

This Order was passed on 7 January 1784 and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu, Liaison Officer.

Note: See also ROB 3 March 1782, 14 August 1783, 18 August 1783 and 29 August 1783.

11 January 1784
Order:

(1) Execute Nga Myat (Inyi Thein Hka), Nga Myat Tha (Kyaw Hkaung Pyan Chi) and Nga Hmine (Yet Hka Ye) for conspiracy.

(2) Send the nine men, viz.

Nga Aung Ni (Ye Gyaw Nawyatha)
Nga San Hla (Sain Da Ye) and
Nga Nyo Mya (Sanda Thuyain) who gave supplies to the rebels,
Nga Hme (Brahmin) who worked for Nga Myat (Inyi Thein Hka), Nga Pain
Nga Myat Tun
Nga Ya
Nga Ban and
Nga Myat Ya who talked seditious libel, to some areas of deep forest.

(3) Send ex-Lord of Sale and ex-Lord of Magyi, for not reporting Nga Myat's plan that they knew, to prison after depriving them of their official positions, etc.

This Order was passed on 11 January 1784 and proclaimed by Pyanchi Thiri, Liaison Officer.

2 February 1784

Order:

(1) Drums known by the names of Baho Si, Dat Si and Mingala Si are usually made new and magical squares are drawn on the reverse side of the leather surface of each new drum at the time of coronation. Let it be done.

(2) Do everything else as prescribed in the instructions on coronation without any omission.

This Order was passed on 2 February 1784 and proclaimed by Liaison-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

3 March 1784

Order: Men assigned to night duty in the palace enclosure are exempted from any other work. It seems that officers of Hluttaw and Yon Daw have forgotten this very important fact and they often assigned them to various other duties. Stop it. They shall stand by in their own quarters for twenty four hours.

This Order was passed in the evening on 3 March 1784 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

6 March 1784

Order: (1) Common folks shall not use the clothes meant for officers and members of the royal family.

(2) Making and selling clothes that do not come up to the mark is prohibited.

(3) Making and using silver of qualities lower than the prescribed standards are criminally liable.

(4) Reprimand Myo Wun - City Officer, Htaung Hmu - Chief of One Thousand, and Myo Sayay - City Constable, for negligence of duty to check clothes, silver, etc.

This Order was passed on 6 March 1784 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.

Note: See ROB 16 October 1783.

10 March 1784

Order: (1) Draw magic squares on the city wall, at the city gate and on the turrets together with verses from the scriptures (in order to make the city invulnerable to enemy attacks, both men and spirits.

(2) Get full instructions from the men wise in these things before they are carried out.

This Order was passed on 10 March at the time of morning audience and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.

12 March 1784

The Vinaya - Discipline, is the most important work which every monk should know well. When the Council of Monks assembled at the Pitaka Taik Taw was asked as to how many of the monks are well versed in the Vinaya and how well they could live according to it, the answer was that there were many who did not know much about the Vinaya and who would not care much about living according to it.

Order: (1) Elders of the Council of Monks at the Pitaka Taik Taw shall conduct an oral examination on the Vinaya for every monk.

(2) Mahadan Wun - Religious Affairs Officer, shall submit the list of those who failed in the examination; he shall include in his report, who were the teachers of those monks who failed in the examination and who were the people supporting those monks.

(3) A course in the Vinaya shall be given in the Pitaka Taik Taw and those who failed in the examination must attend it; if they failed the examination again, they shall have to leave the monkhood.

(4) A course of training shall be given by the Pitaka Taik Taw Council to monks who will be sent to remote places in the kingdom to propagate the Buddha's Religion and provincial towns shall send some selected monks to this course with expenses provided by the chief of province from which the trainees are sent.
This Order was passed in the evening on 12 March 1784 and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Mait Sithu.

14 March 1784

Order: (1) Fast and reckless riders of horse in the streets of the city shall be punished; an Order to this effect had been issued in Ava before the move of the royal residence from there and similar orders were issued repeatedly at Amarapura; in spite of that it was reported that a monk was seriously injured because of a collision with a galloping horse in the main street running east to west on the north of the palace.

(2) Put Htaung Hmu - Chief of One Thousand, and Htaung Sayay - Clerk of Chief of One Thousand, under custody and ask them to name the rider of that horse that caused an injury to the monk.

(3) The rider shall be beaten while he is led along the streets in the city and outside the city, once in a day for three days; a town crier with a gong should explain why he is so punished.

This Outside was given in the evening on 14 March 1784 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

31 March 1784

Asu - Group, or Angan - Division, were made for Thway Thauk - Platoon of Fighting Men about fifty in number, Myin Daw Thi - Royal Horseman, Daing - Shield Bearer, Lamaing - Cultivators of Royal Lands, Win - Palace Guard, Ko Yan - Body Guard, Athi - Common Folk, and Taing Dan - Tax Payer in a Group of Twenty Five Houses, and it has been the custom observed from ancient times that (1) a number of one unit shall not serve in another unit and (2) any person of influence shall not harbour any deserter from anyone of these units.

Order: (1) Unit leaders shall report their missing men and trace them.
When a missing man is found, punish both the man and the person who shelters him.

This Order was passed on 31 March 1784 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.

1 April 1784

Ponna - Brahmins, are grouped as (1) Shit Pa Ponna - Eight Brahmins, (2) Koe Ba Ponna - Nine Brahmins, and (3) Kyee Ponna - Mainland Brahmin, and Maharajindarajaguru, Chief of Eight Brahmins, was asked the definition of these group names. He said:

King Damazedi (Rāmādhipati 1462-1487) asked Brahmins who would lead the ceremonies, from Sri Lanka and the Sri Lankan King sent:
1 Dakkhinātha
2 Lokanātha
3 Mahanātha
4 Narānātha
5 Jalānātha
6 Nandanātha and
7 Sirinātha.

To make a party of eight, a straw figure with a name Vamsanātha was added. From the time of Damazedi until now these Brahmins of the Unit of Eight do the following as the occasion arises:
1 Conduct the Coronation
2 Give Paritta Flowers to the King
3 Lead the ceremony of Taking the City, Occupying the Palace, etc.
4 Operate the Tha Gya Yay Zin Hkan - Shower Bath with Water flowing out of the Hands of Sakra, for the King
5 Ceremonial shampooing
6 Fetching water for ceremonies
7 Conduct the offerings to the Lord and monks at the beginning and end of Buddhist Lent
8 Consecrating things ranging from barges to cups and crowns before they are put aside for the king's use

These Brahmins were never asked to conduct the offerings to guardian spirits.

Order: (1) Shit Pa Ponna shall perform the duty as they have been accustomed to do.

(2) They shall not be asked to do anything outside their usual kind of work.

This Order was passed on 1 April 1784 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Blace Beret Guards.
3 April 1784

It was reported that jackets of Pin Ni and shawls of Yaw were seized from men and women who were found to be using them while they were going along the main thoroughfares of the city.

Order: (1) Do not seize Pin Ni jacket and Yaw shawl from a person who is found to be wearing or using either one of it while he or she is walking in the city's thoroughfare.

(2) Watchman at a city gate must stop a person who comes along with either one of these forbidden clothes and tell that person that with such a apparel, he or she should not go into the city.

This Order was passed in the Sin Kyone - Elephant Inclosure, on 3 April 1784 and was proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.

Note: Some clothes were for the royalty and some for officers only but this seems to be the only reference where common folks were forbidden to use the coarse kind of homespun.

20 April 1784

Order: Mahadan Taik Wun - Officer of Mahadan Division, shall support Mahapanditavara, disciple of Sonda Sayadaw and now living in Kyay Ma Twe.

This Order was passed in the evening on 20 April 1784 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.

21 April 1784

On 19 April 1784 Atula Sayadaw was interrogated by other Sayadaws at Pitaka Taik and his concepts on religious practices were known. It was in the reign of King Myedu (1763-1776) that Sayadaws of Kyet Thun Gin, Zayit and In Gyin had submitted a report stating definitely that as he had lived a way of life that was strange to the Religion, he should be driven out of the Buddhist monkhood. Accordingly he was to leave Ava and stay in jungle. In the time of King Singu (1776-1782), Queen Mother built a monastery for him but Sayadaws of In Gyin and Bon Gyaw (U Pon) objected. He had to continue living in the jungle. Soon after that, he had gathered quite a number of disciples again.

Order: Shin Janinda of Lay Dat North Monastery and U Pon of Bon Gyaw Monastery shall meet Atula again and ask him why he was exiled from Ava by King Myêdu and Sayadaws of the Religious Examinations shall made a full report on this meeting.

This Order was passed on 21 April 1784 and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu, Liaison Officer.

21 April 1784

Atula was interrogated by the Sayadaws of religious examinations.

Order: (1) Sayadaw of Yadana San Loot shall made the interrogation again.

(2) It should be made in the presence of Sayadaws who interrogated him before.

(3) Hluttaw shall send for

Khin Gyi Baw
Khin Gyi Hmway
Khin Gyi Khine
Khin Gyi Kywin
Khin Gyi Nyo
Shin Kitti
Shin Sin and Shin Jina

who are, as Atula had admitted, his disciples. Let them come as quickly as possible.

This Order was passed in the evening on 21 April 1784 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.

23 April 1784

Sayadaws who interrogated Atula why he was sent to forest in the time of King Myêdu (1763-1776), were not able to reach a definite decision. The facts that he was sent to live in jungle and that he was refused to reside in the Queen Mother's monastery later should not be ignored. In Gyin Bin Sayadaw who was the prime mover in this case is still absent. But

Khin Gyi Pon
Khin Gyi Janinda
Da We Saya
Ga Be Saya
Yin Daw Saya and Ywa Nan Saya

knew about it very well.

Order: (1) Maung Daung Shin Obhā, Nga Ywa Shin Kalyāṇa and Yadana San Loot
Saya shall interrogate Atula again.

(2) Get In Gyin Bin Sayadaw here as quickly as possible.

This Order was passed on 23 April 1784 and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu, Liaison Officer.

(25) April 1784

Nga Pan Htwe, native of Ok Shit area and once known as Atulayasadhammarājaguru, had misled people by preaching false doctrines based on Cuḷaṭaṇḍi in the times of Alaungmintaya and King Dabayin (1760-1763). In the time of King Myedu (1763-1776), as a result of the petition by other monks that he should be treated as an outcast, he was sent to jungle. Nevertheless, he was found to be reorganizing his former group. Now Nga Pan Htwe had admitted his own fault when he was interrogated by

Hanlin Saya Shin Dīpa
Hanlin Saya Shin Parama

Wa Chet Taik
Yan Aung Myin Taik
Ywa Tha Taik and Zay Da Wun Taik (Sagaing).

(4) Beat the gong and declare why these individuals have been given these particular punishments before they are sent to their respective places of exile.

(5) Ex-Wun Dauk Nga Hmwe shall provide longyi – man's nether garment, one each to these men to use when they are disrobed and driven out of monkhood.

This Order was passed on (25) April 1784 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

(25 April 1784)

Sayadaws in charge of religious examinations petitioned the King that Nga Pan Htwe, his deputies and his disciples may be pardoned from their various punishments.

Order: (1) Order to exile Nga Pan Htwe etc. to north forest is cancelled.

(2) Order to send Nga Pan Htwe's disciples to elephant fodder groups is cancelled too.

This Order was passed in the evening on (25 April 1784) and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu.

26 April 1784

Order: (1) Do not allow Nga Pan Htwe and his disciples who had been pardoned to continue living at the Tazaung - Rest House, attached to the shrine.

(2) Hluttaw shall call Nga Aung Tin and disciples who are now living in the monastery where Nga Pan Htwe had lived once in Yadana Thein Ga.

(3) Send Ye Gyaw Daywa to get all the lay disciples of Nga Pan Htwe at the capital, viz.

Nga Hpyo
Nga Myat Kyaw
Nga Ni
Nga Parami
Nga San Pwint and Nga Shwe Hti

who are now living in the villages of

Kyun Gyaung
Lain Hla
Mi Gyaung Ai
Mu Gan and Taung Bo.

This Order was passed on 26 April 1784 and was proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu, Liaison Officer.

27 (April) 1784

Order: (1) Former Wun Dauk Nga Hmwe shall be exempted from other punishments because he had to give some of those men who were punished for their false religious practices, the nether garments.

(2) Taik Taw shall provide rain proof material for making more nether garments.

This Order was passed on 27 (April) 1784 and proclaimed by Yaza Thiri, Senior Clerk.

28 April 1784

Order: (1) Myin Wun - Officer of Horses, shall take charge of Prince Pindale, his family and his servants as well as the lands that he holds in fief.

(2) Prince Pindale shall not be allowed to leave his home so that he would not have a chance to plot any more conspiracy.

This Order was passed on 28 April 1784 and proclaimed by Kyaw Htin Thihathu, Clerk (Horse Group).

Note: Prince Pindale was executed on 19 June 1785 (Kon II 1967, p.22).

29 April 1784

Order: Myo Lat Wun - Officer of towns where there is no Town Officer in each town, shall support Shin Paññacakka now living in Sin Byu Kyun of Salin area.

This Order was passed on 29 April 1784 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

2 May 1784

Order: (1) Maha Thiha Thuya, Atwin Wun - Minister of Interior, shall retire on superannuation; he shall visit religious establishments and do acts of piety on behalf of the King.

(2) Min Kyaw Shwe Daung, Lamaing Wun - Officer of Royal Lands, shall take the place of Maha Thiha Thuya together with Thet Taw Shay and Thet Shay Kyaw Htin (as an Atwin Wun - Minister of Interior).

(3) All arrangements to accommodate the Sayadaws of the examinations shall be made ready.

This Order was passed on 24 May 1784 and proclaimed by Thiri Nandathu, Liaison Officer.

28 May 1784

Order: (1) A courtier who has the permission to occupy either a Taw - number one of five seats in the Audience Hall, or Du - number two seat, and who could wear a Salwe - thread hung from left shoulder winding around the torso from the right, shall put on a robe of velvet when he attends the Gado - Kowtow ceremony either on new year day or beginning day of Buddhist Lent or last day of the Lent.

(2) A courtier who has the permission to occupy either a Taw seat or Du seat but has no Salwe, shall put on a robe of Maing Lone (Mong Long) only when he attends the Gado ceremony.

(3) Courtiers of lower status than those mentioned above shall use the customary robes, etc.

This Order was passed on 28 May 1784 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu.

Note: A courtier's status is known by the seat he occupies in the Audience Hall (in the eastern half of the palace) on the Kowtow day held either on the new year day or at the beginning of Buddhist Lent or at its end. The King sits facing east and right in front of him is the central divide. Any one who sits on his left, i.e. on the north side, is of a higher status than his counterpart sitting on the right or south side (Tañ: Rhwe Nan: Suñ: Wohāra Abhidhān, I 1975, p.16). It is just the reverse when the Kowtow is held in western half of the palace (Tañ: Wohāra, p.153). In the east palace, the seats are arranged as follows:
Crown Prince
Senior Princes
Intermediate Princes
Junior Princes (including Myin Hmu Mintha)
Commander of the Fighting Forces
Vassals from Shan State (Sawbwa)
Seats without name (Nay Ya Loot for persona grata)
Ministers
Taw Choon (Above No.1 seats)
Rich Man (No.1)
Taw (No.1 seats)
Du (No.2 seats)
Sanee (No.3 seats)

Pyin Ba Waw (No.5 seats)
Rich Men (No.2)
Rich Men (No.3)
Officers of Shan State (Tat Paung Za)
Officers of Talaing State (Talaing Amat)
Officers of Thailand (Yodaya Amat) and Officers of Shan State (Shan Amat)

There are altogether 226 seats on the left and (minus the seat of Crown Prince) there are 225 seats on the right. That makes a total of 451 seats.

In the west palace the seating arrangement (i.e. for only ladies of the court) is as follows.

Senior Princesses
Wives of Senior Ministers called Amay Daw Gan Ga Daw Gyi*
Wives of Senior Officers called Ga Daw Gyi*
Shay Thwe (No.1 seat)
Nauk Thwe (No.2 seat)
Pwe Dak (No.3 seat)

Brides sent from Vassals called Thami Kanya (No.4 seats)

* Only with a royal sanction, a woman could use Ga Daw suffixed to the official designation of her husband's; e.g. Pa Khan Wun Gyi's wife became Pa Khan Ga Daw Gyi by a royal sanction (Taň : Wohāra, p.25).

There are 56 seats on the right and 56 more on the left (a total of 112 seats) (Taň : Wohāra, p.23).

(28 May 1784)

(2) A courtier who has a Taw seat shall have Tama leaves as many as gold flowers he has in his ceremonial hat above the forehead band; the decorations should be made only above the forehead band.

This Order was passed on 3 June 1784 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer - cum - Chief of Black Beret Guards.

3 June 1784

A coronation is held not only for the benefit of the king, but also for the benefit of his subjects. A Salwe - ceremonial thread hung from left shoulder and wound round torso on the right, is not only a mark of distinction, but also a pledge for good ethics either at home or in office.

Order: (1) The Crown Prince, all court dignitaries and officers shall observe strictly the rules pertaining to anyone who is given a Salwe.

(2) The Salwe should be worn at all times when one is in the office.

This Order was passed on 3 June 1784 in the Earth Palace and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu.

See Salwe Tin Sadan - Treatise on Threads hung from left shoulder and wound around torso from the right. It is given below.

3 June 1784

On 3 June 1784, the King sent Min Gyi Nanda Kyaw Htin, Atwin Wun - Minister of the Interior, to (Maung Daung Sayadaw) for an information on Salwe - Threads hung from Left Shoulder and wound round Torso from the Right. The following threatise is submitted.

In Pārājika Aṭṭhakathā, Salwe is mentioned as one of the regalia sent as a gift by Asoka to Devanapiyatissa of Lāhkā. The regalia consists of eight items, viz.

1 Flywhisk
2 Forehead Band
3 Umbrella
4 Double-edged Sword
5 A Pair of Shoes
6 Turban
7 Shoulder Thread
8 Jar
9 Back Scratcher or Crow's Foot

In Apādān Aṭṭhakathā, Vakkali Thera was described as a former prince who used to have a Salwe.

In many of the non-religious Sanskrit works, one would find that the use of Yajña pavita - Shoulder Thread, is a very ancient practice. As a matter of fact, this is a symbol of caste. By having this thread on the shoulder, one would often be reminded of his duties as a member of a certain caste. When a king or a prince or a minister has this thread (made of gold) on his shoulder, he would always be aware of his official responsibilities on the people he rules.

In this way this Salwe is not an ordinary ornament. A hermit would like to sit on a seat made of black leopard skin. Why? Because leopards are known to be very firm in keeping a certain habit and if a leopard skin is around, a hermit feels that he has been reminded to be firm in the way of ascetics. A Salwe serves the same purpose to a king or a Brahmin as a leopard skin is to a hermit. A Brahmin has nine threads on his shoulder, while a Cetra wears six, a Bisya three and a Sudra none. Following their practice, each officer according to his rank shall have three or six or nine threads of Salwe while a minister shall have twelve, a junior prince fifteen, a senior prince eighteen, a Crown Prince twenty one and a king twenty four. A Brahmin who wears shoulder threads shall be replete with ten qualities, viz.

1. Keeping quiet or remaining calm
2. Making perpetual check on mind and body not to commit any sin
3. Suppressing sexual urge
4. Remaining pure
5. Having contentment
6. Having patience
7. Being honest
8. Being pious
9. Being kind
10. Being truthful

In another words, a Brahmin who is wearing shoulder threads shall keep the above mentioned ten virtues. The king, on the other hand, would have the determination that he would try to keep the exalted position and he would remain forever beyond reproach, after having worn the Salwe. As a result, he would live long and remain unconquered. He would be wise and powerful.

If anyone could get the said benifits by remaining true to the way of one's caste, it goes without saying that he would get an enormous benifit by living the Buddhist way of life. When the king and all administrators who represent him become aware of their rights and responsibilities because of having worn the Salwe, there should be a great prosperity in the land they rule and that would also help the Religion to thrive there.

In Nemiya story written in verse, Soṇadinna is mentioned as having a Salwe of nineteen threads. The Pali version, which is of course the original, simply states that he was resplendent in a full dress. The number of threads in the Salwe is not important whether it is nineteen or twenty four. Soṇadinna is an important deva though he is not a king. A king would have a Salwe of twenty four threads.

This treatise was copied on 28 January 1867.

Note: Ameto'phre (Maung Daung's Answers to Queries by King Badon), Mandalay, Zabuamaitswe, 1961, pp.71-5, gives some part of this treatise.

3 June 1784

Maha U Gin Tha - Ceremony of Opening the Throne Room for the First Time, is considered very important. Any mistake done by any participant in this ceremony is punishable with death. But it is also an occasion when prisoners awaiting execution are pardoned and set free.

Order: (1) One Wun Dauk - Assistant Minister, one Sayay Gyi - Senior Clerk, one Nagan - Liaison Officer, one Than Khan - Officer receiving Tributes, and one Sa Bud - Reader, who made mistakes during Maha U Gin Tha, are pardoned.

Notice of Wazo Full Moon Day (1 July 1784)

You all people of this kingdom, know that the Buddhist Lent has begun. Do not kill. Do not steal. Do not commit adultery. Do not tell lies. Do not take any intoxicant drinks. If you commit these five sins, you will go to hell. If you are free from these sins and if you could do some charity plus some more restraint from doing the carnal sins, you could aspire to become king of men, king of devas and ultimately to reach Nirvana. Think about it seriously and pay homage to the Buddha, the Buddhist Religion and the Buddhist Order of Monks while you keep the promises of either five kinds or eight kinds.

17 June 1784

Order: (1) Read the Notice of Wazo Full Moon Day (1 July 1784) in all places where people are most numerous within

All these forces going by land and sea routes are to be led by Crown Prince who has been given the Order to take possession of Dhannavati, capital of Arakan and restore peace and order there so that the Buddhist Religion may prosper again.

Note: The name of the Commander and the number of men, etc. of the Eleventh Troop going by coastal route are missing. A few detail given here are from the chronicle; Kon II 1967, p.2.

(4) After having taken the city of Arakan, clear the place of all bad characters so that the Religion might prosper.

(5) Follow these instructions:

1. March on the double
2. Take nothing from the people without payment
3. Do not forcibly take any young women
4. Allow no intoxicant drinks, etc.
5. Never stop for the night in a camp until all troops have arrived
6. Never take off harnesses from elephants and horses until the last moment to settle down in camp
7. Never allow elephants and horses to wander without proper attendant with ropes, etc. so that they could be gathered easily
8. No trooper shall speak a word that would bring bad luck
9. Armed men shall keep their weapons always with them even when they are at rest in camp
10. Elephants and horses must be kept in good combat condition (and remember that they are not beasts of burden)
11. Each Commander shall do the early morning prayer and make the offerings to guardian spirits so that the campaign would be accomplished speedily with success
12. All officers and group leaders shall attend the conference in full uniform with sword in belt when C-in-C wanted them for consultation 13 Send a reconnoitre before animal fodder is collected
14 Clear the camp site of inflammables
15 Cook and eat the meal within a fixed period and there shall be no fire in the camp after the cooking hour
16 Check fire in every three hours during the night
17 Post proper guards before the main body of the forces goes to rest; surround the camp with obstacles so that enemy could not rush in surprise
18 Send scouts penetrating secretly into enemy area both for short and long distances to spy enemy positions before a move is made
19 A decision to move or to make an attack shall be made only after the Commander and his officers have discussed it
20 Punish severely anyone for an act that would cause a demoralization among troops
21 Mention in the dispatch by name, those soldiers who deserve rewards of bravery
22 Send reports without intermission to the headquarters so that the headquarters would be always in touch with the movement of troops and their success or defeat
23 After the Arakanese capital is taken, never allow a small party of five or ten men to go in quest of enemies who have escaped into jungle
24 All officers shall take the responsibility of making these instructions followed strictly by all men under him

This Order was given to Crown Prince in Hluttaw on 16 October 1784.

Note: This Order together with ROB 6 December 1759, 7 January 1760, 3 March 1760, 8 March 1760, 11 March 1760, 13 March 1760 and 21 March 1760 would give those interested in the organization, training and fighting of the Burmese troops in the eighteenth century, a fairly good information.

This Order was passed on 9 February 1785 and proclaimed by Zayya Nawyatha, Liaison Officer.
12 February 1785

SHAY YON SADAN - EAST COURT MANUAL

1 Myo Wun Appointment

When the King names a certain person to become a Shwe Myo Daw Wun - Officer of the Golden City, Hluttaw - Chief Administrative Centre, shall issue an order to this effect and administer him the oath of allegiance. Henceforth, the person so appointed shall put on robes, etc. befitting his rank and position and present himself in Hlut Kun Zin Ale - Distinguished Place within the Most Central Four Pillars of Hluttaw Building, before all ministers. He is to swear in into his office there and Nayya Cha - Ushers, shall take him to his proper place in Hluttaw.

2 Allocation of Duty

When Myo Wun - City Officer, has taken his seat in his office, in fact all men in the service of city administration shall line up before him. Then he says:

You are expected to suppress crime to keep constant watch against any outbreak of fire to keep men under custody from escaping, and to interrogate the criminal suspects and report their statements at court.

3 Duties of A City Gate Keeper

Keep watch so that no strangers shall either enter or leave the city
Secure the bolts of door panels and lock up the gates at night
Post watchmen and change them at regular intervals
Visit once in the morning and again in the evening to bazaars to check the use of weights, capacity measures, length measures below the standards with the assistance of Zay Sit - Bazaar Inspectors, and Zay Nagan - Bazaar Liaison Officers
Report monthly the number of people detained in the inner lock up and outer lock up in all four sectors of city
After city gates have been closed for the night, report to Myo Wun when he comes to his office for the night session

4 On Port Management
Report monthly to the Yon Daw - Criminal Court, on the current prices of Cheik Kon - commodities sold by weight measure, and Taik Kon - commodities sold by capacity measure, at river ports and brokerages. A similar report should be sent to West Palace as usual. A receipt of such reports must be given. Chief of One Thousand shall attend the Criminal Court every day. The staff members of the court are:

4 City Constables
4 Chiefs of One Thousand
8 Clerks of One Thousand
1 'No Hesitation' Executioner
2 Bazaar Liaison Officers
1 Shwe Pyi Soe - Hereditary Chief who leads Royal Processions
4 Shwe Pyi Sayay - Clerks of Shwe Pyi Coe
1 Amway Wun - Officer on Inheritance
1 Amway Sayay - Clerk of Amway Wun
4 Ameindawya - Pleaders

Yon Say - Peons, and Lak Ma Htau - 'No Restraint' Executioners are to be at the office (in shifts) at all times as there are men under detention in the lock ups.

5 Execution of A Prince
Either a prince (brother of the King or son of the King) or a person of rank and position is to be summoned to appear at Yon
Daw - Criminal Court, a Lak Ma Htauk is sent as messenger. If the person summoned is to be checked, a chief of Let Ma Htauk has to do it. Myo Sayay records the things he has brought. They shall keep the book of oaths, a pot of lead and a bowl to measure time in readiness. When the order mentions detention, a piece of cloth (either velvet, satin or cotton) to be used together with fetters must be asked from Hluttaw. An officer of Hluttaw shall decide what kind of cloth is to be used for which person of the royal family, in order to soften the weighting of fetters on the skin. A Let Ma Yun shall wrap the cloth on the fetters before they are used.

6 Drowned in Water

When the order mentions death, apply for a net bag, a cloth bag, four big pots and (two) boats with men, in Hluttaw. After having received them, take the prisoner to the river port with an escort of one armed man from each of Tha Ye Dan - Barrack of Armed Men called Tha Ye / Braves, Let Ya Dan - Barrack of Armed Men called Let Ya / Marksmen, and Kaung Han Dan - Barrack left there by King of Kaung Han / descendants of Burmese in Chiengmai/Hanthawaddy Sinbyushin in the third quarter of the 16th century, plus a Sayay Gyi of a Wun Dauk - Assistant Minister, of Hluttaw and Mya Wun - City Officer, with assistants like Myo Sayay - City Constable, Htaung Hmu - Chief of One Thousand, and Htaung Sachi - Clerk of Htaung Hmu, from Yon Daw. Actual execution of the order shall wait until sunset with the expectation that an order rescinding the execution would come. When no rescinder arrives at the end of the day, Let Ma Yun shall bind the prisoner in cords and put him in a net bag first. Then the net bag goes into a cloth bag to which four big pots are attached, one each at a corner of the bag. Special ropes are used to tie up the pots. A check is made so that the ropes are tied well. Using the two boats given by Hluttaw, the prisoner and executioners row to a place of deep water with the four pots floating in between the boats. The armed men and officers from Hluttaw and Yon Daw shall go in the boats. In the middle of the river, the two boats get separated and the prisoner is dropped into the water. The four big pots are broken by Let Ma Yun men. After the prisoner disappeared under water, the officers, etc. shall return to the bank of the river.

7 Execution of an Ex-Officer

A former minister or a person who was once well known and important, is taken to a cemetery for execution. Hluttaw shall pass an order to Tha Ye Dan, Let Ya Dan and Kaung Han Dan to provide an escort when the prisoner is taken from the lock up to cemetery. For crucifixion, apply for wood and nails in Hluttaw. Hluttaw shall pass an order to carpenters and blacksmiths concerned to supply them. Using material supplied, Sandala - undertakers, erect a cross on which the prisoner is crucified.

8 Burnt to Death in a Fire House

Yon Daw orders West Chief of One Thousand and his assistants to collect timber, bamboo and cane. With these, Sandalas build a Mi Laung Daik - House to hold prisoners to be burnt alive. By order of Hluttaw the amount of gunpowder to ignite the house is issued in proportion to the number of people to be burnt in that house. It would be 50 or 70 viss. In fact West Chief of One Thousand takes it from Yon Daw and gives it to Sandalas. Powder and fuel are put together on the floor of Mi Laung Daik. The prisoners are taken to cemetery with a Thon Dan - Three Barracks, escort. They are tied up by Let Ma Yun executioners and shut up in Mi Laung Daik. They set fire to the powder and leave Sandalas to wait until the house is burnt. After the lapse of three days Yon Daw send officers to check the number of charred bodies and the remains are allowed to be taken away.

9 Cutting the Body with a Saw

With Hluttaw's order to have the body cut with saw, the prisoner shall be taken to (cemetery) with a Thon Dan escort. Any saw available will do the purpose of severing head from body by Let Ma Yun executioners. The severed head and body are left with Sandalas.

With Hluttaw's order to have the prisoner cut into four parts, Sandalas have to put up a stand with wood available at cemetery. The prisoner is taken to cemetery by a Thon Dan escort and cut into four parts. A spike is put through each part and put on the stand by Sandalas. The remains should not be taken away without permission of Hluttaw.

10 Display the Head

With Hluttaw's order to display the head after execution, made a request to Hluttaw to provide wood for a post to hang the head and for writing the name of the criminal and a carpenter to inscribe the name on the wooden plaque which is about a metre long and 16 cm wide. Both ends of the plaque are made to look like the top of a writing board. Men of Lay Myak Hna - Stockade on Four Sides of Palace, write in lime: "This is the head of so and so, a scum of society" and the carpenter has to inscribe it on wood with his chisel. The head is hung and the plaque is nailed to the post from where the head is hung. The head could not be taken away without Hluttaw's permission.

11 Burnt in Fire by Bellows

With Hluttaw's order to use bellows in raising fire, made a request to Hluttaw to provide charcoal and bellows. The escort of Thon Dan is also sent for as usual. In cemetery, the prisoner is tied up to a post with his feet barely touching the ground. Let Ma Yun men shall set fire using bellows. (Nga Tint De) of up stream was the only person ever known to have been executed with fire by bellows in the past.

12 Execution by Opening the Chest

With Hluttaw's order to cut open the prisoner's chest, Let Ma Yun men shall take him to cemetery by the usual Thon Dan escort and execute him. Sandalas shall guard the remains of the executed man.
13 Declaring the Nature of Crime by beating a Gong (before Execution) known to
For some crimes, punishment should be made public with the beat of a gong. In such a case, the prisoner with usual escort shall be led through the busy streets of city. The announcement to be made was written and given to one of the members of North Palace Guards to read it. In Ava it is to be read at the road junction on the east of Kala Dan - Foreigners Quarter. In Amarapura it is to be read at the road junction at Hman Dan - Ward of Glass Makers, and also outside A La Wi Gate. At cemetery, Let Ma Yun shall execute the prisoner and leave the head and body with Sandalas for three days. With Yon Daw's order the remains are to be disposed of after three days.

14 Open the Chest
When a prisoner has to be executed by cutting open his chest and then his dead body has to be spread eagled on a cross. Let Ma Yun have to do it. The remains are to be disposed of after three days with the permission of Yon Daw. Either a hanging head or remains of a crucifixion or remains of a dead prisoner spread on a stand, could only be disposed of with Hluttaw's order. Without an order, they should remain as they are until they disappeared through the lapse of time.

When a prisoner dies of an illness, the officer of the lock-up where he was detained, must report it to Myo Wun - City Officer. Myo Wun shall assign a Sandala to remove the remains. The name of Sandala who comes to take away the remains is to be written against the name of the dead prisoner in the prison register.

15 Floating on Raft the Remains of an Executed Prisoner
After execution Sandalas have to fix the head on the dead body with a spike so that the dead body could be seen in a sitting position. The whole thing should be done as it was done with the remains of Nga Kin Nge.
16 Cutting the Hand

To cut which hand or both hands is ascertained first. Then the prisoner shall be taken by the usual Thon Dan escort to cemetery. The cut is made at the wrist, but it should be marked with lime before the cut is actually done by a Let Ma Yun. After it has been cut, the prisoner and the severed hand are left with Sandalas.

17 Cutting the Hip and Hand

For the offence of using a set of harness meant for a superior officer and a long handled umbrella with a bearer without permission, the hip of the man who set on the saddle unauthorised and the hand of the bearer who held the unauthorised umbrella shall be cut. If the bearer escapes, the man who had used the umbrella will lost his hand. The person or persons to be punished are taken to cemetery by the usual escort of Thon Dan. When the cuts are made, the punished ones are left with Sandalas.

18 Hanged by the Neck

When a prisoner who has been marked by tattoo for his crime and has been confined in either one of the four lock-ups, commits a crime before his term of imprisonment is over, he shall be made to confess his guilt as well as to name all the men who are his associates in the recent crimes. If Shwe Myo Daw Wun - City Officer, decides to punish him, he shall be moved to the West Lock-up without any special escort and Let Ma Yun shall hang him there. After having reported the hanging, Yon Daw shall permit that the remains shall be disposed of or buried. Since the man had been convicted, his execution requires no sanction of Hluttaw.

19 Declaring the Nature of Crime by beating a Gong (before giving Lashes)

In all cases of declaring the nature of crime and giving the lashes, Let Ma Yuns are to carry out the order. The note is read by Myauk Atwin Wun - North Officer of Interior. The allowance given for this reading of note is divided among the people of Yon Daw and Htaung Hmu. Depending on importance of the person involved, the allowance could be either large or small and if it is small, only men of the Htaung group share it. The reading of the note is made in all four quarters of city and when it is over, the lashes are given. Then the man so punished would be handed over to his guarantor.

20 Death Penalty

Prisoner to be executed is moved to Myauk Atwin - North Inner (Lock-up), three days before execution. It has been observed that in the time of City Officers Min Gyi Nay Myo Thin Gyan and Min Gyi Nay Myo Thin Khaya, the said prisoner was taken on the day of execution from North Inner to Yon Daw. There he was detained on the north of Yon Daw until all officers of the court had left for the day. Then he would be taken away for execution.

When a prisoner has arrived for punishment from the city's immediate surrounding or from the provinces, Yon Daw has to check the case and proceed with the punishment without making reference to Hluttaw. For death or cutting limbs, a request for Thon Dan escort is made before the punishment.

21 Put under a Log and leave in the Sun

With Hluttaw's order to put a prisoner under a log and leave him in the sun, a request has to be made to Hluttaw to provide the log. After all officers of Hluttaw have arrived at Hluttaw, the prisoner is taken to a place outside Yway Daw Yu Gate. Put the prisoner out in the sun lying with his head aligned toward the palace, with a log to pin him down on the ground. Guards are provided by A Na Zoe - Chief of Executioners. The prisoner is exposed to sun from the time when the officers of Hluttaw arrived in office in the morning until they leave it in the evening. It shall be repeated every day until an order is given to stop it.
22 Execution

The order to execute a prisoner is not carried out immediately if it coincides with

1. the King's birthday,
2. the sabbath day and
3. if it is too late in the evening.

The fact that the execution of an order has been delayed, has to be reported to Hluttaw.

23 Trial by Ordeal: Putting Pointing Finger into Molten Lead

Both parties in a contest shall undergo this ordeal. Formerly pure lead was supplied by the chief of prostitutes. From the time that prostitution was abolished, the contestants shall have to bring their own lead. One Let Ma Htawk shall bring an iron pot to melt the lead and he would be paid a little for this service.

In cases of theft or accusation (of adultery or murder or witchcraft) both parties have to pay the court fees. Put on record precisely how much money has been collected. In order to observe the effect of putting the finger in the molten lead, the person who make the accusation shall be kept in a lock-up while the accused remains in a jail. When the burnt finger becomes septic, the person so injured is considered guilty and punished. (On the contrary, in 1801, Nga Thut Tawika already sentenced to death was set free because his injured finger did not become septic.)

Cases that have been decided by this lead ordeal generally required no revision. The trial is carried out under a shady tree on the east of Yon Daw.

24 Trial by Ordeal: Remaining submerged in Water

Both parties of the contest have to offer food, etc. with music to the guardian spirits. Each contestant's name, age, day of birth and place of residence together with the name of pleader who represents him, shall be entered in the register. The name of the attendant who has been assigned to keep each participant is also noted. Each of them shall have the case history written with a concluding prayer that he may win the contest as he is in the right. It is copied by the clerks of Yon Daw. Myo Sayay - City Constables, shall lead the people concerned through Yan Hnin Gate to the river bank where this ordeal by water usually takes place. Two bamboos to show where the two persons who are to go under water are fixed. Each bamboo has a name plate attached so that each one of them knows his place. There are also flowers fixed on bamboo tops as offerings to spirits. A bamboo about three metres long is kept ready near the place to dive. The contestants have to change into white skirts for diving. Office attendants shall check them so that none of them has with him any kind of magical aid secreted in his mouth or in the hair knot or between his fingers and toes to keep him submerged in water longer than his rival. After this checking, a book of oath is put on his head and he has to repeat after Let Ma Yun these words:

"Neither I nor anyone of my friends and relatives who come to this trial have done any magic as an aid to come out well in this ordeal. If the statement I have just made is false, may I be punished with all the atrocities mentioned in this book of oath. On the other hand, if I say nothing but the truth, may I have the reward of winning this contest." Then his statement which is written on a palm leaf is hung from his neck. A cord is tied to his waist. He then goes to his bamboo and make ready to dive. His rival is also subjected to all the checkings, etc. like himself. A bamboo is put on his shoulder to signal a synchronized dive. No joyous and boisterous music is allowed during the ordeal. There must be absolute silence. The bowl of water clock is also started to mark the time. Both contestants must remain completely submerged and if there is no full submersion, note how much or which part of the body remains above the surface of water. When both of them remain under water until the water bowl sinks (after 24 minutes when it has been put in water), pull the waist cord taut to signal them to come out of water. Mark who is in a bad shape like vomiting water, etc. It is possible that both could have an ill effect or none of them suffers anything. Or it is also possible that one could not stay under for the whole period of 24 minutes. A full report on all these conditions are to be sent to Shwe Myo Daw Wun.

Ati Kyay - court fee paid at the court of origin, is to be brought over to the city court. Each contestant has to pay:

Kyats 1.50 to Shwe Pyi Soe - Town Officer whose function is largely ceremonial
3.00 to Court Attendants who fix bamboo post and handle signal bamboo and waist cord
1.50 to Let Ma Htauk who administer oaths and watch time
2.00 to Guards
--- to Clerk or City Constable

25 Trial by Ordeal: Chewing Rice

Chewing rice contest is carried out in front of Shwe Yin Ye pagoda on the northwest of palace in Ava and in front of Sin Gyo Shwe Gu on the northwest of palace in Amarapura. Use the best quality rice - one tical for each participant. Put rice in water for some time and wrap it up in a banana leaf to bring it to the place of trial. Check each party that there is no magic, etc. Let Ma Htauk shall administer oath. Take down the statement of each contestant. Read it three times. Tie it around the neck of the person who made it. Let Ma Htau Yaza Thiha shall put his right finger into the mouth of one contestant while Myauk Atwin Wun - North Officer of the Interior, shall put his right pointing finger into the mouth of another contestant. Put rice into their mouths. When the order to chew is given, the officers whose fingers are in the mouths of the contestants withdraw their fingers simultaneously. When one contestant informs that he had finished chewing all rice, the attendant who put in the rice in his mouth says; "Chew again" three times. Then, in order to stop both parties from chewing further, two officers who had formerly inserted their fingers into the mouths of the contestants, have to put their fingers simultaneously into the mouths again. Let each of them take a mouthful of water to clean his mouth and spit the water into the spittoons. The report should say whether the water is clean or dirty. Send the report to the minister concerned through Yon Daw.

26 Trial by Ordeal: Putting a Woman in Water to find out whether She is a Witch or not Take the name, age and day of birth of the woman who is accused to be a witch. Write also the date when the ordeal is going to be carried out. At the water port, let the woman turn her neither garment upside-down and inside-out. Let her clean the mouth and wash her feet. Anauk Atwin Wun - Officer of West Interior, shall tie up her hair in seven knots. Seven combs are used to divide her hair into seven groups. In each knot put one comb, a vulture's feather, a bone from some human skeleton, a miniature bow made of bamboo used in cremating a dead body with bow string made from threads to bind thumbs and big toes of a dead person and fourteen small arrows. After leaving her in the water, report the minister concerned through Myo Wun - City Officer, at Yon Daw whether she sinks or swims.

27 Officers coming to Hluttaw daily (though they are not its members)

The following officers are to attend Hluttaw daily:
Let Ma Yun Hmu - Chief of 'No Hesitation' Executioners; when he comes to Hluttaw, he shall have as attendants only those who have no tattoo marks (on their faces) and they shall be left outside the building; they are to take charge of any criminal sentenced by court for punishment; no imprisonment shall be made without a court sentence. Nagan Daw - Liaison Officer who conveys Orders of the Interior to people concerned; reports Myo Wun - City Officer, the punishments decreed by Hluttaw; receives any other duty charged by Yon Daw before attending Hluttaw in the evening session; and visits Let Ma Yun jail in the evening to alert the wardens there against any jail breaks.

28 Anasoe - Executioners, and their Duty

Anasoe group shall keep ready

- a pair of pincers
- a big semicircular iron pot
- an iron spike
- an iron skewer
- an iron ladle and various tools to make a hole either in the neck or cheek as a sort of punishment.

They shall accompany an officer on tour bringing these implements with them.

They have to take prisoners under custody before punishments are carried out.

29 Suicide or Death after being stricken by a Thunderbolt

In city, death either suicidal or thunder stricken, is reported to Shwe Myo Daw Wun - City Officer, by chief of a service group or chief of a ward where the death had occurred. Yon Daw issues an order to bury the remains and Sandalas do it. They roll up the remains in a mat and carry them to cemetery for burial.

In a suicide by rope, a member of Htaung group has to cut the cord used.

30 Skinning as a Punishment

Hluttaw's order to cut the skin is in fact to pass the knife's blade around the neck of the prisoner and the cut should not be deep. Drawing out a little blood is enough. Let Ma Yun shall execute this punishment in a space between Yon Daw and Taya Yon Daw.

31 Cut the Edges of Mouth

Hluttaw's order to cut the edges of mouth, shall be carried out by a Let Ma Yun.

The prisoner is taken to cemetery by a usual Thon Dan escort. There, a Let Ma
Yun shall make a cut of 5cm on each extreme edge of the mouth and continue it in only a skin deep line until it meets another line coming from the other side of the neck. Leave the prisoner in the hands of Sandalas.

32 Chisel a Hole in the Neck or Cheek
To make a hole in the neck or cheek as a punishment, the Anasoe - Executioner group, shall supply the necessary chisel. The place to strike the chisel is marked by lime. Hold chisel in hand so that only the tooth is showing and strike it to draw a little blood.

33 Punishing a Ponna - Brahmin
A Ponna sentenced to death for conspiracy is taken to cemetery with Shan Thaye Kaung Han Escort. At the usual site for such an execution, he shall be put to the blow of death only with a cudgel. Hluttaw's order would be either to dispose the remains of the executed person in the river or to leave the remains as they are in the cemetery so that all who see them would be scared of committing a similar crime.

34 Jail Register
Hluttaw often wants Yun Daw to report the number of persons in jail as well as in lock-ups. In the report the prisoners should be grouped in three categories:

1 those sentenced to severe punishments,
2 those sentenced to less severe punishments and
3 those sentenced to only light punishments.

City Constables made the list and Shwe Myo Daw Wun - City Officer, shall countersign it. Then the constables submit it to Wun Dauk - Assistant Minister, in Hluttaw. A clerk clever in reading (such lists) is sent to go starting from the south around Hluttaw and read the list. Ministers say what kind of punishment should be given to each prisoner and the name of punishment is written at the end column against the name of the prisoner. The most severe punishment is death and a zero sign is written to denote it. The minimum punishment is to declare the nature of crime by beating a gong in all crowded parts of the city, to give 20 to 100 lashes and to hand over the person so punished to a guarantor. The clerk shall report the sentences named by ministers to the Shwe Myo Daw Wun before carrying out the punishments in usual manners.

35 Men In Subordinate Services

Shan Pike. Kaung Han and Tha Ye formed Thon Dan - Three Brigades. Everyday a representative group of them shall come to a site on the north east of Yon Daw and wait for orders. While they wait they display their swords, lances, helments, etc. around them. Men of Anazoe group also come to join them in displaying their axes. Men of Lay Myak Hna – Stockade on Four Sides of Palace, Anazoe and Let Ma Yun shall come daily to a site on the north of Yon Daw and display ropes and canes that they use for punishing the prisoners. Sa Myaung - Attendants to preserve silence during ceremonies or while an officer is doing his official work, have to accompany Myo Wun and Myo Sayay. They also use small canes in driving away men sitting in places not meant for them. After Myo Wun has taken his seat in the office, no one is allowed to pass the front of Yon Daw nor to use the front room stairways of Yon Daw. They also check that no one uses blankets, curtains and slippers in Yon Daw. Men of Sa Myaung group and messengers of Hluttaw from four Thwe Thauk groups are stationed on the southeast of Yon Daw.

Messengers of Hluttaw in four groups have their places about 7.5 ft / 2.286m from south stairways of Yon Daw, while Kaung Hans have their place about 15 ft / 4.572m on the east of Yon Daw and Tha Yes on the north, i.e. on the east of Taya Yon. On the east of Tha Yes, there are Shan Pikes and on the east of Shan Pikes, there are Let Ma Yuns. Anazoes are stationed on the east of Kaung Hans. Let Ma Htauks are to take their position on the west of Yon Daw.
They shall have logs ready (to pin the prisoner on the ground while he is left in the sun). Shwe Pyi Soe Officer to lead Ceremonies in City. is to be present at Yon Daw at all times (i.e. day as well as night) and when Shwe Myo Daw Wun takes his night round of the city, he has to come along with a gong. The gong is carried on a ploe by two members of the Shwe Pyi Soe group. A few members of Let Ma Htay and Htaung Hmu groups also have to accompany the City Officer in his night round.

- 105 -

When an officer goes his round of inspecting a certain ward in the city or even a certain village, men in the subordinate services have to go with him because there would be an occasion when they have to arrest and punish bad characters who are disturbing peace in the country side. Sometimes local leaders arrest such bad characters and send them to Htaung Hmus concerned who interrogate them and send in the report on their interrogations to Yon Daw. From these reports, officers shall decide either to detain a person or to let him go free. Without such a decision no one shall remain under detention.

36 Let Ma Yun vs Anazoe

Officers concerned shall investigate and decide when Let Ma Yun and Anazoe quarrel. The two quarrelling parties shall crouch on the ground when the decision is read to them. One Let Ma Yun then show them a naked sword signifying that they shall perish by this sword if they have the audacity to continue the quarrel. The same procedure is taken when members of the Htaung Ana Zu quarrel.

When a member of Let Ma Yun or Htaung Ana dies, he shall be buried together with a rope 4.5 ft / 1.3716 metre long, a wedge 1.5 ft / 0.4572 m long and a cudgel.

On death sentence passed by Myo Wun on a member of either Let Ma Yun or Htaung Ana Zu, Hluttaw is reported on this sentence. Then the man so sentenced is taken out of the city by Alawi gate and is executed. His remains together with rope, wedge, etc. is buried after three days.

37 Sandala vs Sandala

Sandalas are considered Athi - Common kolks, and quarrells among them are the concern of Athi Wun - Officer of Common folks. Executions, when necessary, are carried out as in the case of a Let Ma Yun but an old robe of monk is tied to the neck of the dead body and the remains are thrown into a river after weighing them with stones.

39 Mein Ma Zo or Mein Ma Ge - Eunuchs of Harem

Anauk Wun - Officer of West Palace (exclusively for women), shall report the interrogation on a suspected Mein Ma Zo or Mein Ma Ge - Eunuch in charge of women, to Hluttaw with a request for sanctioning his execution. When the sentence of death is confirmed, the prisoner is put in iron shackles by Myo Wun - City Officer, and taken away through Alawi gate to West Prison. Let Ma Yun shall execute him and send his remains to cemetery where they are left exposed for three days.

40 Execution of Barber, Brahmin, Faked Fakir, etc.

Myo Wun - City Officer, shall pass a death sentence of a bogus person who deserves such a severe punishment. He has to report it to Hluttaw and after Hluttaw's approval, the prisoner is sent with usual Thon Dan escorts for execution.

Brahmin, Barber, Eunuch, Fakir, Spirit Medium, Member of Entertainment Groups and Servant of the Religion, shall never enter Hluttaw. A chief of their group shall be called upon to represent any of them when his statement is required in a trial.

The aforesaid procedures have been prescribed by four ministers, viz.

Kyan Gin Min Gyi,
Pakhan Min Gyi,
Kin Wun Min Gyi and Myo Lat Wun Min Gyi

on 29 October 1783 and put on record by a Wun Dauk - Assistant Minister, who is mentioned as Kyun Daw Yin - Slave of the King long before he is King. Wun Dauk passed this record to U Dain Thiri, Senior Clerk, who brought it to Shay Yon - East Court.

Supplement

Judges at Taya Yon - Law Court, shall have to bear in mind for always the Royal Order that

1 people who come to a law court for redress of their grievances
2 shall not be harassed with mere trifles
3 truth shall prevail and
3 precedence shall be respected.

People who are in custody before the reorganization of groups shall be given a special consideration.

When a person is wanted at court, he shall be summoned in a civil manner. If he refuses to appear at court after the third summon, the case should be referred to Hluttaw. With Hluttaw's sanction, he shall appear at Shay Yon or Taya Yon wherever he is wanted.

The supplement is added by

1 Lord Pakhan, Minister
2 Lord Ka Naung, Officer of Common Folks and 3 Officer of Horses, and put on record by Nay Myo Sithu, Wun Dauk - Assistant Minister, who is Kyun Daw Yin. It has been brought to Shay Yon and Taya Yon by a senior clerk.

(Final text) is written under the supervision of Min Gyi Thiri Maha

Zayyathu, Lord Myaung Hla, Assistant Minister.

There remains several points where the King wanted more explicit answers with reference to authorative works. He sent A Saung Mye - Palace Apartment Guards, Nga Kywin, Lord of Thet Pan and Nga Hmwe, Lord of Nyaung Ok, to the learned monks on 27 July 1785.

Question 1 What is the difference between landownership of a king and landownership of a person who is in fact one of the king's subjects?

Answer 1 King owns Le Ya Mo Myay - cultivable land between sky and earth (Dighanikaya Sutpatheyyava). King allows his subjects to work in these lands. In this sense king alone owns all land and a person's ownership of a certain plot of land simply means that he has the king's permission to work in that plot. This right, in customary law, becomes inheritable and transferrable, leading men to assume that this right is as good as or the same with land ownership. Nevertheless, the fact that payment of one-tenth of the yearly agricultural produce as tax to the king is in acknowledgement of king's ownership of all land in his territories (Vinay Athakatha).

Question 2 Is it correct to assume that except the king, no one else has a right to own land?

Answer 2 Answer to Q 1 is also good as an answer to this question.

Question 3 Gazin - low and narrow earth embankment to mark land border, has been changed to make an encroachment on another's land even for a hair's breadth is virtually stealing. Is the man who changes a Gazin stealing the king's property or his neighbour's property?

Answer 3 A theft case remains a theft case whether it is stealing a big man's property or a lesser man's property. Once a theft is detected, it is not important to know who owns the property for determining the degree of punishment. But in this case of land encroachment, it becomes a crime against both the king and the person to whom the king has granted permission to work on that certain plot of land.

Question 4 If the king alone owns land, no other person could give any piece of land to the Religion. Is this attitude correct?

Answer 4 When the king gives a certain portion of land to the Religion, an individual shall give the produce of the land on which he has the king's permission to cultivate, to the Religion.

Question 5 Once a king had given a certain plot of land to a religious establishment but that establishment had long perished though there is some person working on it. Wouldn't that person be taken as the owner of the land?
Answer 5 No. As one tenth of the yearly agricultural produce is given to the King by a person for having the king's permission to use the land, so that person should pay one tenth of the yearly produce of the land to a nearest religious establishment if the one to which the land was originally given is no longer in existence.

Question 6 What should a man do if there is no one to collect the due from the land which is a former religious land where he is working now? Will he be considered as having the right to consume all the produce of the land by himself?

Answer 6 He should never ignore the fact that the dues are to be sent to a nearest religious establishment if the one to which the land originally belongs, is no longer in existence.

Question 7 In case there is no one to look after a garden which is in reality a religious property, will anyone be free to take the fruits, etc. of that garden?

Answer 7 Yes, he is free to do as he pleases.

Question 8 In some records of dedication, there are some instructions as to how much of the yearly agricultural produce of a certain land should be used for offering food to the Buddha daily and how much of it should be used in providing light at a certain religious monument, what should be done with the surplus if there were any?

Answer 8 One-tenth of the yearly agricultural produce is for the maintenance of the religious establishment and it goes without saying that after the expenses of food offerings and lighting, the remainder goes to the maintenance fund.

Question 9 After a religious establishment had ceased to exist, land which are formerly under its management should relapse into king's land. Right?

Answer 9 No. Any monastery or pagoda in the neighbourhood of the land under question, should get the yearly produce of that land, for its maintenance.

Question 10 Doesn't the religious establishment lost the land given to it by a king when that king died?

Answer 10 No. The land remains a religious land for all the remainder of Five Thousand Years of the Religion.

Question 11 A king gave a certain piece of land to a religious establishment and there is a lithic record of the dedication of the land. Nevertheless, it is possible that the act of giving was not done precisely as it has been mentioned in the scriptures. In that case, is it not correct to ascertain that the land never was a religious land?

Answer 11 When there were the three factors, viz. the property, the receiver and the real act of giving by its real owner, the transfer of ownership is perfect. If the giving was not done as prescribed the monk who was to receive it could have objected the giving at that time.

A king always observes (1) four qualities of Sangaha, (2) seven features of Aparihaniya and (3) ten or twelve features of Rajadhamma. A minister has to follow eight ways of an administrative officer. That would bring peace and prosperity in all four quarters of the city. Since the accession of the present monarch, it was ordered that

(1) ministers shall carry out their official duties without any remiss;
(2) expense accounts on all public works are to be submitted for the king's perusal, once in every six months; and
(3) all charges or fees collected in Hluttaw, Yon Daw, etc. shall conform strictly with custom.

Nevertheless, the King observed that there had been negligence of duty and disregard of customary practices in many aspects of administration. Tax collection had been excessive or oppressive. Wun Dauk - Assistant Ministers, are expected to help the ministers by bringing to their notice anything that they might have forgotten to do. They also had failed their duty. For that they deserve death. But it is the time of war with Thailand and it is also the time of Buddhist Lent and for these two reasons they are pardoned.

Order: (1) Submit expense accounts after every six months.
(2) No one other than the four senior clerks shall write

Sa Gyun - Order on Palm Leaf with one end tapering to a point.
3) All officers employed in judiciary shall listen to a reading monthly of the Royal Order of 3 March 1782 and everything that they do shall agree with those orders strictly.

4) Expect no clemency after having disobeyed the orders.

This Order was passed on 21 August 1785 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer - cum - Chief of Black Beret Guards.

22 August 1785

New inscriptions on some records of giving certain plots of land to various religious establishments in the past would be made. Maung Daung Sayadaw I was asked to write a prologue that could be used with every new inscription. It begins with thirteen Pali verses meaning:

1 Like Mt. Meru that would stand in existence in all the life of the earth, may the Buddha's Religion stands in the whole period of 5,000 years after the Buddha's death; like the sun that shines steadfastly in all twenty four hours, may the Buddha's Religion prospers extensively; like the moon that would not deviate from its course, may the Buddha's Religion continues forever in its course of progress; with these considerations in mind, the King of Kings had carried out the following in maintenance of the Buddha's Religion.

2 Like the just king Nemi of the remote past who had done much to spread the practices of good men, the King of Kings is a descendant of an excellent line of kings.

3 Like Mahasammata at the beginning of the earth, Lord Ratanasinkha had left a thriving line of kings and the King of Kings is a son of that King Alaungmintaya.

4 Like the lion among beasts that could subdue all enemies, there was Lord Sagaing who had conquered all enemies and who gave peace and prosperity to his kingdom in which the Buddha's Religion thrived exceedingly, and the King of Kings is his brother.

5 Like the Garuda among birds that could destroy the most powerful adversaries, there was Lord Ava who was also the master of white elephant, and the King of Kings is his brother.

6 Like Mahavijita of olden times, this true descendant of the line of kings has the eight personal qualifications (Atthanga Samanagata); he also has an extensive fighting forces.

7 He has an enormous supply of weapons and an extensive number of gold, silver and ruby mines; he is lord over several kings who have their own cities and kingdoms, and he is the master of white elephants; in this way there is no limit to the power that he wields.

8 He is the founder of many pagodas including Aung Myay Lawka, Myo Daung, Four Shwe Gus (in the capital) and Fifty Shwe Gus (in provincial towns), and he also built the temple for the Arakanese Mahamuni image together with many monastic establishments. His regnal title is Siri Pavara Vijayanantayasa Tribhuvanaditya Dipati Pandita Maha Dhamma Rajadhiraja and with the power and wealth that resulted from his accumulation of great merit in his former lives, he created in the great land of Tampadipa 9 the invulnerable city of Arimaddanapura and he had had the Abhiseka coronation twice in accordance with the prescriptions made in ancient records.

- 125 -
10 He has, like a Universal Monarch, the good fortune to have an eldest son, who is replete with five personal qualities and who is capable of helping him in the various administrative duties as well. In religious affairs, he put an end to the controvercy of "Left Shoulder" and he had sent Buddhist missionaries to more than fifty places.
11 In the course of promoting the Buddhist Religion, he found that records on gifts of land to religious establishments are in various stages of decay.
12 He considers that this situation should be corrected. It is his wont to improve things whenever they are necessary. In the programme of having records on gifts of land copied again, he had ordered to collect all such records from all places in his kingdom.
13 Then the records are checked in order to identify the places mentioned in them and to attach the land at a religious establishment as it was originally done.

21 July 1786

On 27 January 1784 hereditary chiefs of Amyint Myo, viz.
Yaza Wutta, Friday Born, aged 38 years, Ashay Lay Ya Yo -
East Four Hundred Line of Hereditary Chief
Nga Mo, Monday Born, aged 39 years, Ponnya Yo - Ponnya Line
Nga Shwe Pin, Thursday Born, aged 22 years, Anauk Lay Ya Yo - West Four Hundred Line

were interrogated. They said:

In Anyint there are the following lines of chiefs, (each in his locality or group having an administrative authority).
1 Ashay Lay Ya Yo - East Four Hundred Line
2 Ponnya Yo - Good Deeds Line
3 Anauk Lay Ya Yo - West Four Hundred Line
4 Myay Daing Yo - Land Track Line
5 Thein Gywe Yo - One Hundred Thousand Riches Line
6 Pwe Yo - Broker Line
7 Tan Yun Yo - Shan Garrison Line
8 Ka Bet Yo - Shield Companions Line
9 Gado Yo - Ferry Line
10 Pauk In Daing Yo - Pauk In Shield Line

There are altogether ten lines.

Genealogy of East Four Hundred Line
Nga Hman (Great Grandfather)
Nga U (Grandfather)
Zayya Butta Yaza (Father)
Yaza Wutta (Present Chief)
Genealogy of Good Deeds Line
Zayya Butta Yaza (Great Great Grandfather)
Zayya Wuttana (Great Grandfather)
Zayya Nanda Yit (Grandfather)
Thiha Yaza Bo (Father)
Nga Mo (Present Chief)

Genealogy of West Four Hundred Line
Thiri Thamanta Bo I (Nga Kyaw, Great Great Grandfather)
Nga Thet Shay (Brother of Nga Kyaw)

Nga Aung Myat Tun (Great Grandfather)
Nga Aung Myat (Grandfather; he allowed his son Thiri Thamanta Bo II to become chief before his death)
Thiri Thamanta Bo II (Father)
Nga Shwe Baw (Son of Thiri Thamanta Bo II)
Nga Shwe Pin (Brother of Nga Shwe Baw; Present Chief)

Yaza Wutta, Nga Mo and Nga Shwe Pin maintained that the area under their charge, i.e., Amyint Township, is bounded in the east at a distance of 4 tuin (8 miles / 12.872 km) by the Dan Taing stream with Nga Shan village land on its further bank; in the southeast at a distance of over 5 tuin (10 miles / 16.09 km) by the Sin Gaung range with Nyaung Nabet lands on its other side;
in the south at a distance of over 3 tuin (6 miles / 9.654 km) by Pauk In Pike Tan Nyaung Bin that divides Amyint land from that of Ma Gyi Byoke Paik Thin Kya 0 villages; in the southwest at a distance of over 500 twan; (3 tuin / 1 mile / 1.609 km) by Hnaw Bin Hla that divides Amyint land from that of Nga Hkon village; in the west at a distance of over 4 tuin (8 miles / 12.872 km) Tha Sin Kyun Bo Bin that divides Amyint land from that of Yay Main village; in the northwest at a distance of over 3 tuin (6 miles / 9.654 km) by the Ma Yin Nwa Da Byay Yay Win stream that has the land of Let Pan South village on its further bank; in the north at a distance of over 5 tuin (10 miles / 16.09 km) by Nyaung Gine Zayat Hpyu that divides Amyint land from that of Hlay Gu village; and in the northeast at a distance of over 5 tuin (10 miles / 16.09 km) by the Ba Lon range that divides Amyint land from that of Taw Chaung U village.

In this (Amyint Township) bounded by landmarks mentioned above in each of the eight cardinal points of the compass, there are no other hereditary line of chiefs except those ten given above. Myoza – Lord who received the town as his fief, often entrusted Yaza Wutta as his agent to manage the land comprising:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Fields taking water from U Ka Fields</th>
<th>6.25 acres</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Hlaw Ga Fields</td>
<td>60.00 acres</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sit Tha Fields</td>
<td>40.00 acres</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tha Hpan Hkway Field</td>
<td>20.00 acres</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
There are fields at some higher level so that they cannot receive water by irrigation and they are useless in a year of little rain. Whether they are productive or not, the cultivators are free to use all produce, if there were any, from these 33 pe (57.75 acres as 1 pe = 1.75 acres) of land. From the other 140 pe (245 acres) of land, the cultivator pays 10 baskets of paddy from each pe. That brings 1,400 baskets.

Yaza Wutta, Chief of East Four Hundred Line, has his own 50 pe (87.5 acres) of land in Kan Bauk Zauk Wun - slope around weir gate, and he usually receives as his due 1 basket per pe from these lands.

Nga Mo, Chief of Ponnya Line, has his own 40 pe (70 acres) of land in both north and south of Kan Bauk Kan Baik ~ Weir Sluice Gate, and his due from them is 1 basket per pe.

Nga Shwe Pin, Chief of West Four Hundred Line, has his own 40 pe (70 acres) of land in Kan Bauk Myin Myay Ba Ye Kan - Weir Gate Horsemen's Land of Melon Reservoir, 40 pe (70 acres) of Mayin Than Byin - Autumn Rice Land of Than Byin, and 1.25 pe (2.1875 acres) in Nyaung Zo Kan - Dead Bodhi Tree Reservoir, and his dues from them is (1 basket per pe).

From each Hsi Zon - Oil Press, in town, he gets usually 1 viss (3.65 lbs) of oil from each press in a year.

Ponnya Line Chief has 10.25 pe (17.9375 acres) of land in Magwe Kyaung. From each trade depot or brokerage in town, he receives .25 ticals (100 ticals = 1 viss = 3.65 lbs) of silver and 25 ticals of pickled tea on the sale of one basket of pickled tea.

West Four Hundred Chief has 10.25 pe (17.9375 acres) of land in the hills within Ba Aung Taw - Ba Aung Forest, 5 pe (8.75 acres) within Kala Gyi Taw - Kala Gyi Forest, and 80 pe (140 acres) that might produce copper. He gets his dues from these lands.

When a buffalo or an ox is butchered, Myo Thagyi - Town Headman, i.e. Yaza Wutta, gets the rump as his share or due. When a buffalo or a horse or an ox is found without owner, they are kept in the cattle pound for one year and half of the money (realised from its sale is kept by Town Headman and another half) is sent to the royal treasury. Revenue Officers concerned usually send written orders to headmen and village tract chiefs (to exempt) religious lands (from taxation). There is no hereditary chief in Madaya In. Chaung U and 3, Ma Gyi Zin and 3, and Tha Bauk and 3, have to pay dues on one crop at a rate of 1 basket of paddy and 5.25 ticals of copper as the main tax and 1 basket of paddy, 1 basket of rice and 25 ticals of copper as the fee for clerks.

These are the statements (made by the Chiefs of Amyint).

In a village or a village tract or a town, there are some cases where its headmanship is contested between two, three or four rivals, resulting in much waste of time and money. This should never happen if a proper check of the line of these hereditary chiefs is made fairly often and when occasion arises, select the nearest heir to the vacancy with reference to these updated records.

Order: Yaza Wutta alone shall become the Chief in Amyint.

This Order was passed on 21 July 1786 and accordingly Yaza Wutta alone becomes Myo Thagy - Town Headman, in Amyint.

18 October 1786

Servants of the Religion, given by ancient kings and attached to Poppa Yon Kyaung, Kon Gyaung, and four halls at Yaza Mani Sula pagoda, should be reallocated to other religious establishments, because the original establishments are now in ruin. Gunamunindabhidhajamahadhammarajadhajaguru said in his memorandum that this attitude has a textual support.

Order: 88 men of Poppa Yon are transferred to Kyaung Daw Gyi
23 men of Kon to Chief Queen's Monastery
10 men of Kon to North Queen's Monastery
20 men of Yaza Mani Sula Northwest Hall to Crown Prince's monastery in Sonda Monastic Establishment
30 men of Yaza Mani Sula Northwest Hall to Pitaka Taik and Thudama Zayat
20 men of Yaza Mani Sula Northeast Hall to Princess Kani's Monastery
13 men of Yaza Mani Sula Northeast Hall to Princess Myedu's Monastery
12 men of Yaza Mani Sula Southeast Hall to Middle Queen's Monastery
9 men of Yaza Mani Sula Southwest Hall to Princess Henzada's monastery

Total 225 men

This Order was passed on 18 October 1786 and proclaimed by Nay Myo Thin Gyan, Liaison Officer - cum - Chief of Black Beret Guards.

9 June 1787

Chinese U Ti sent (this letter) in 1787 to his young brother who is king in western part of the world.

1 The East King and the West King have common ancestors.
2 The two kings had never quarrelled; in fact they two remained in friendship most closely.
3 The East King most earnestly awaits to hear the happy news that the West King, his family, his retinue, his subjects, etc. are happy and prosperous.
4 In order that the friendship between the two kings might be renewed, strengthened and everlasting, the East King took the initiative to send this gold royal letter.
5 Since 1750, there was no exchange of any sort between the two kings.
6 For mutual benefit, the relationship should be revived. (To mark this most remarkable occasion of having resumed the cordial relations) the following gifts have been sent with the envoy.
   8 gold statuetts of the common ancestors of the East King and the West King
   8 carpets of felt
   10 pieces of brocade
   10 horses
Son of Kaing Ma who serves the East King is made the Envoy to the West King.
7 Please send back the Envoy together with the Envoys of the West King. To see them would please the East King as if the West King has come himself.

Sīripavaravijayanandaśaṃbhavānātiṃśadhipatiṇḍitamaṃdhammaṇāja the West King made this reply to the East King.

1 It is true that the East King and the West King had never quarrelled before.
2 Kaing Ma Sawbwa's son, Envoy of the East King, arrived at Amarapura on 26 May 1787 bringing 8 statuettes in gold of Abhassara Brahma, 8 carpets, 10 pieces of Brocade, etc.
3 Believing that paying proper respect to the ancestors would bring prosperity, the West King keeps the images in a special shrine located in the top pavilion of his palace.
4 The West King has done his best in support of the Buddha's Religion and he sincerely wishes that the merits that he would receive from these good deeds might be extended as well so that the East King may receive the merits too.
5 On the return of the Envoys of the East, Nay Myo Shwe Daung Thiha Kyaw Khaung and Waylu Thaya, who serve the West King, shall accompany them as Envoys from the West. The gifts to the East King are:
   4 elephants
   100 viss of ivory
   1 helmet of ivory with a ruby top
   1 (helmet of ivory) with ruby and sapphire top
   1 ruby ring
1 sapphire ring
1 viss of Mobye Kyauk
1 bale of yellow serge
1 bale of red serge
1 bale of green serge
1 bale of chintz
10 towels
10 carpets
100 gold foils
100 silver foils
100 viss aromatic white powder called Natha Byu
100 viss aromatic red powder called Natha Ni
4 big betel receptacles
50 small betel receptacles

6 The West King expects the speedy return of his Envoys because he is in earnest to learn good news of the East King.

This Order was passed on 16 October 1787 and proclaimed by Nay Myo Thin Gyan, Liaison Officer - cum - Chief of Black Beret Guards.

17 October 1787

The Buddha's Religion is like a big tree. The heartwood or duraman is the way to Nirvana. The sapwood or alburnum is the wisdom. The bark is a certain stage in the control of mind. The scaly part of bark is the promise to keep away from sins, etc. The branches and leaves are the support given to people who devoted their time to religion. It is not correct that monks should remain doing nothing except keeping away from sins and enjoying free food, etc. They are supposed to study and practice the Religion. As mentioned above, free food, etc. is the branches and leaves of the big tree. The monks should go ahead to enjoy the scaly bark. That is the study and observation of the Vinaya. When monks observe the Vinaya well, it would do good to both men who supported the Religion and monks who formed part of the Religion. The King on the other hand could punish those so-called monks.

Order:
(1) Start religious examinations on 25 October 1787.
(2) Mahadan Wun - Officer of Religious Affairs, shall make a list of candidates in these examinations and submit the list.
(3) The examinations shall continue until 18 July 1788 and failures shall be punished as prescribed.
