Ms. Shi-jing Sun was awarded the Poster Award at the International Symposium on Wood Science and Technology 2015

Ms. Shi-jing Sun (Graduate School of Agriculture) was awarded the Poster Award at the International Symposium on Wood Science and Technology for her paper titled “Function analysis of cellulose synthase by site-directed mutagenesis” at the International Symposium on Wood Science and Technology 2015 held in Tokyo, Japan, on March 15 – 17 2015.

Associate Professor Yuki Tobimatsu was awarded the Japan Wood Research Society Progress Award by the Japan Wood Research Society

On 31 January 2015, Associate Professor Yuki Tobimatsu (Assistant Professor at Graduate School of Agriculture, Kyoto University, at the time) was awarded the Japan Wood Research Society Progress Award for his outstanding contribution to the understanding of formation and structures of plant cell wall lignins.

Mr. Ryosuke Munakata was awarded the Best Presentation Award by the KANSAI JSBBA Student Committee.

On January 2015, Mr. Ryosuke Munakata was awarded the Best Presentation Award by the KANSAI JSBBA (Japan Society for Bioscience, Biotechnology, and Agrochemistry) Student Committee for his oral presentation entitled “A membrane-bound prenyltransferase catalyzes the first biosynthetic reaction toward furanocoumarin formation in parsley”

Mr. Naoki Matsumoto was awarded the Student Outstanding Presentation Award at the Japan Geoscience Union Meeting 2014

Mr. Naoki Matsumoto (Graduate School of Science) was awarded the Student Outstanding Presentation Award for his paper titled “MQBE and Amplitude Modulation of SAO in the MLT” at the Japan Geoscience Union Meeting 2014 held at Yokohama on April, 2014.

Associate Professor Shinichi Enami of the Hakubi Center was awarded the Young Investigator Award by the Japan Society of Atmospheric Chemistry at the 20th Symposium on Atmospheric Chemistry

On 28 October 2014, Associate Professor Shinichi Enami was awarded the Young Investigator Award by the Japan Society of Atmospheric Chemistry for his prominent research activity entitled “Understanding of chemical reaction mechanisms at gas-liquid interface of atmospheric aerosol” at the 20th Symposium on Atmospheric Chemistry.

Associate Professor Kenji Umemura was awarded the JWRS Best Paper Award 2014 by the Japan Wood Research Society

On 31 January 2015, Associate Professor Kenji Umemura was awarded the JWRS Best Paper Award 2014 by the Japan Wood Research Society for his paper titled “ Kinetic analysis of color changes in keyaki (Zelkova serrata) and sugi (Chiptomeria japonica) wood during heat treatment” published on Journal of Wood Science Vol.60, No.1, p.12-20 (2014), coauthored with Miyuki Matsuo and Shuichi Kawai.

PRIZE

Dr. Sensho Honma was awarded the Excellent Presentation Award at the 12th Annual Meeting of the Wood Carbonization Research Society

Dr. Sensho Honma (Graduate School of Agriculture) was awarded the Excellent Presentation Award for his paper titled “Pyrolysis of Woody Biomass using Pulse Current Heating Method -Relationships between Compositions of Materials and Pyrolysis Products” at the 12th Annual Meeting of the Wood Carbonization Research Society held in Kyoto, Japan, Jun 2014.

Ms. Yuko Kubota was awarded the Best Student Poster Awards at the 11th Asia Oceania Geosciences Society

Ms. Yuko Kubota (Graduate School of Engineering) was awarded the Best Student Poster Awards for her paper titled “Relativistic Electron Precipitation Due to Pitch Angle Scattering by EMIC Triggered Emissions in the Inner Magnetosphere” at the 11th Asia Oceania Geosciences Society held on July 28 – August 1, 2014.

Mr. Junki Yoshino was awarded the Best Student Paper Award at 2014 IEEE Wireless Power Transfer Conference (WPTc2014)

On May 8-9, 2014, Mr. Junki Yoshino was awarded the Best Student Paper Award for his paper titled ‘Estimation of Beam Forming Accuracy for Satellite Experiment toward SPS’ at 2014 IEEE Wireless Power Transfer Conference (WPTc2014).

Mr. Yu Tsukamoto was awarded the Best Poster Award at 2014 Young Engineer Technical Exchange Meeting by IEEE Microwave Theory and Technique Society (MTT-S) Kansai Chapter

On November 11, 2014, Mr. Yu Tsukamoto was awarded the Best Poster Award for his Japanese poster presentation titled ‘Research of Receiving Antennas on Electric Vehicle’s Roof for Microwave Power Transfer (in Japanese)’ at 2014 Young Engineer Technical Exchange Meeting by IEEE Microwave Theory and Technique Society (MTT-S) Kansai Chapter.

Students of Shinohara Laboratory were awarded the Best Award of University Exhibition Contest at 2014 Microwave Workshops & Exhibition (MWE)

On December 10-12, 2014, Students of Shinohara Laboratory were awarded the Best Award of University Exhibition Contest for their research’s exhibition and presentation in Japanese at 2014 Microwave Workshops & Exhibition (MWE).

Students of Shinohara Laboratory were awarded the 1st Rank of System Prize at symposium session “Surprising Application Contest of Wireless Power Transfer of 2015 IEICE Symposium (Domestic)

On May 11, 2015, Students of Shinohara Laboratory were awarded the 1st Rank of System Prize for their wireless power transfer demonstration and presentation in Japanese at symposium session “Surprising Application Contest of Wireless Power Transfer of 2015 IEICE Symposium (Domestic).

Mr. Yoh Nagasaki was awarded the Highlights of 2014 in Superconductor Science and Technology

On 27 February 2014, Mr. Yoh Nagasaki(Graduate School of Engineering) was awarded the Highlights of 2014 in Superconductor Science and Technology for his paper of experimental and numerical investigation on screening currents induced in Bi-2223/Ag double-pancake coil for space applications.

Mr. Kohei Yamaguchi was awarded the Mazume Award of Kyoto University

On 17 June 2014, Mr. Kohei Yamaguchi (Graduate School of Engineering) was awarded the Mazume Award of Graduate School of Engineering, Kyoto University, for his research of orbital deflection of potentially hazardous asteroids using space environment.

Mr. Kento Hoshi was awarded the Best Poster Award at the 65th International Astronautical Congress

Mr. Kento Hoshi (Graduate School of Engineering) was awarded the Best Poster Award for his paper titled “Numerical simulation of satellite charging for electromagnetic orbital control” at the 65th International Astronautical Congress held in Toronto, Canada, October 2014.

Mr. Kohei Yamaguchi was awarded the Young Scientist Award of JSASS (The Japan Society for Aeronautical and Space Sciences) 58th Conference on Space Science and Technology.

On 20 January 2015, Mr. Kohei Yamaguchi (Graduate School of Engineering) was awarded the Young Scientist Award of JSASS (The Japan Society for Aeronautical and Space Sciences) 58th Conference on Space Science and Technology, for his research of electric sail kinetic impactor for near earth asteroid deflection missions.

Mr. Atsuhito Kawahara was awarded the Student Award of JSASS (The Japan Society for Aeronautical and Space Sciences) 58th Conference on Space Science and Technology.

On 20 January 2015, Mr. Atsuhito Kawahara (Graduate School of Engineering) was awarded the Student Award of JSASS (The Japan Society for Aeronautical and Space Sciences) 58th Conference on Space Science and Technology, for his research of space debris identification using MU radar.
