

SEPTEMBER 2001

Southeast Asia Sea Turtle Cooperative Research
(SEASTAR2000)

PROCEEDINGS OF
THE FIRST SEASTAR 2000
WORK SHOP

ORGANISED BY

KYOTO UNIVERSITY, JAPAN

THE UNIVERSITY OF TOKYO, JAPAN

PHUKET MARINE BIOLOGICAL CENTER, THAILAND

SEA TURTLE CONSERVATION STATION, THAILAND

MARINE FISHERIES DIVISION, DEPARTMENT OF FISHERIES, THAILAND

KYOTO, Japan

27-30, November 2000

CONTENTS

1. List of participants	1
2. Sex determination of green turtle, Chelonia mydas , related with nest temperature Kenichi Tatsukawa	3
3. Reproductive biology of green turtle at Ko Khram Island, Chonbri Province, Thailand Somchai Monanunsap and Mickmin Charuchinda	11
4. Migration Paths of Adult Female Green Turtles Detected by Satellite Telemetry Mickmin Charuchinda, Somchai Monanunsap, Wataru Sakamoto and Nobuaki Arai	17
5. Report on PTT-attached green turtles Chelonia mydas in the Andaman Sea Wataru Sakamoto, Supot Chantrapornsyl, Kongkiatt Kittiwattanawong and Nobuaki Arai	25
6. Population dynamics and management of fisheries resources Hiroyuki Matsuda and Shin-Ichi Ebina	29
7. Research and conservation of dugon in Thailand Kanjana Adulyanukosol	33
8. Correlation between the sea turtles and shrimp trawl fishery in Thailand Wannakiat Thubthimsang and Taweep Boonwanich	41
9. GIS mapping technique to avoid bycatch Naoya Shiba	47
10. Development of the new device for marine biotelemetry Nobuaki Arai	51
11. Status and conservation of sea turtles in Thailand Supot Chantrapornsyl	55

12. Future plan for the SEASTAR2000

Wataru Sakamoto 61