

ABOUT THE ATTACHED CD: DIGITAL DATA ON FOOD SECURITY AND LIVELIHOOD IN RURAL AFRICA

Shigeru ARAKI

Graduate School of Asian and African Area Studies, Kyoto University

[General Information]

1. This CD is a part of the African Study Monographs, Supplementary Issue 42, published by the Center for African Area Studies, Kyoto University in 2011. The CD was created in purpose of help deepening readers' understanding of papers included in this volume of ASM. The CD contains pictures of landscape, people, livelihood activities etc. from each research sites mentioned in this volume. The contents do not only make you enjoy the view but also help you to understand the conditions, problems, reality etc. of the research sites in a familiar manner. This is a trial of researchers seeking for a new method of conveying their messages to varieties of audiences. We greatly appreciate users' sincere comments and advices (send an e-mail to the editor of this CD: araki@jambo.africa.kyoto-u.ac.jp).
2. Copyright to this CD and each components of this CD, such as maps, photographs etc. are held by the Center for African Area Studies, Kyoto University and/or by authors and others noted in the contents. The editor of this CD is the person who is responsible to a matter of concern on the copyright. Individuals are granted the right to view, reproduce, and print out whole or a part of the contents for private and academic use only. This consent does not extend to other kind of reproduction for non-academic purposes, or to any form of reproduction, printing, or general distribution that exceeds the limits of personal use. All such acts constitute an infringement of copyrights and are strictly prohibited.

[Basic Use of the CD]

1. Put the CD into your computer.
2. Open the CD.
3. Open a web browser and make sure Java script is turned on.
4. Drag ASM_toppage icon into the web browser window.
5. Enjoy the contents as if you are browsing the web site.